STATE SENATOR BARROW SETS COMMUNITY MEETINGS

State Senator Regina Barrow, along with other elected officials, will hold a series of community meetings in the Senate District 15 area to discuss a variety of legislative issues. Representatives from many state agencies, including the Departments of Health, Education, Environmental Quality, Children and Family Services, and Revenue, as well as the Governor's office, GOHSEP, Office of Community Development, Congressional offices, LA Spirit, and the Attorney General's office, have been invited to attend.

Senator Barrow urges citizens in the area to take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about important state issues and have their voices heard.
