Reported by substitute by the Committee on Senate and Governmental Affairs. The bill was read by title; the committee substitute bill was read.

SENATE BILL NO.
BY SENATORS DARDENNE AND ULLO
(Substitute for Senate Bill 254)

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing to amend Article III, Section 2(A) of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to legislative sessions; to provide for the subject matter and duration of regular legislative sessions; to provide deadlines for the prefiling and introduction of legislation and for certain legislative action; to provide for the authority of the legislature as it relates thereto; to specify an election for submission of the proposition to electors and provide a ballot proposition.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to amend Article III, Section 2(A) of the Constitution of Louisiana, to read as follows:

§2. Sessions

Section 2. (A)(+) Annual Session. (1) The legislature shall meet annually in regular session for a limited number of legislative days in the state capital. A legislative day is a calendar day on which either house is in session.

(2) Any bill to be introduced in either house shall be prefiled no later than five o'clock in the evening of the ~~Friday before tenth calendar day prior to the first day of a regular session;~~ thereafter no member of the legislature may introduce more than five bills, except as provided in the joint rules of the legislature. The legislature is authorized to provide by joint rule for the procedures for passage of duplicate or companion instruments.

(2) (3)(a) All regular sessions convening in ~~odd-numbered even-numbered~~ years shall be general in nature and shall convene at noon on the ~~last third~~ Monday in March. The legislature shall meet in such a session for not more than sixty legislative days during a period of eighty-five calendar days. No such session shall continue beyond six o'clock in the evening of the eighty-fifth calendar day after convening. No new matter intended to have the effect of law shall be introduced or received by either house after ~~midnight of the thirtieth calendar~~ six o'clock in the evening of the fifteenth legislative day. No matter intended to have the effect of law, except a measure proposing a suspension of law, shall be considered on third reading and final passage in either house after ~~midnight of the fifty-fifth~~ six o'clock in the evening of the fifty-seventh legislative day of a regular session, except by a favorable record vote of two-thirds of the elected members of each house.

(b) No measure levying, authorizing, or increasing a fee by the state or a statewide political subdivision whose boundaries are coterminous with the state; dedicating state revenue; levying or authorizing a new tax by the state or by any statewide political subdivision whose boundaries are coterminous with the state; increasing an existing tax by the state or by any statewide political subdivision whose boundaries are coterminous with the state, or legislating with regard to tax exemptions, exclusions, deductions or credits shall be introduced or enacted during a regular session held in an ~~odd-numbered~~ even-numbered year.

(3) (4)(a) All regular sessions convening in ~~even-numbered odd-numbered~~ years shall convene at noon on the ~~last third~~ Monday in April. ~~Each such session shall be restricted to the consideration of legislation which provides for enactment of a general appropriations bill, implementation of a capital budget, for making an appropriation, levying or authorizing a new tax, increasing an existing tax, legislating with regard to tax exemptions, exclusions, deductions, reductions, repeal, or credits, or issuing bonds.~~ The legislature shall meet in such a session for not more than thirty legislative days in a period of forty-five calendar days. No such session shall continue beyond six o'clock in the evening of the forty-fifth calendar day after convening. No new matter intended to have the effect of law shall be introduced or received by either house after ~~midnight~~ six o'clock in the evening of the tenth ~~calendar~~ legislative day. No matter intended to have the effect of law, except a measure proposing a suspension of law, shall be considered on third reading and final passage in either house after midnight of the twenty-seventh legislative day of a regular session, except by a favorable record vote of two-thirds of the elected members of each house.

(b) During any session convening in an odd-numbered year, no matter intended to have the effect of law, including any suspension of law, shall be introduced or considered unless its object is to enact the General Appropriation Bill; to enact the comprehensive capital budget; to make an appropriation; to levy or authorize a new tax; to increase an existing tax; to levy, authorize, increase, decrease, or repeal a fee; to dedicate revenue; to legislate with regard to tax exemptions, exclusions, deductions, reductions, repeals, or credits; or to legislate with regard to the issuance of bonds. However, a legislative instrument intended to have the effect of law, including a suspension of law, which is not within the subject matter restrictions provided in this Subparagraph may be considered at any such session if it is either prefiled as provided in Subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, provided that no member may prefile more than five such instruments; or if its object is to enact a local or special law which is required to be and has been advertised in accordance with Section 13 of this Article and which is not prohibited by the provisions of Section 12 of this Article.

(5) Except for the restriction on the number of legislative days for each regular legislative session, the legislature may modify the provisions of Subparagraphs (2), (3)(a), and (4)(a) of this Paragraph for subsequent annual sessions, and then only by joint rule adopted by a favorable vote of two-thirds of the elected members of each house and according to the same procedure and formalities required for the passage of a law; except that it shall not be subject to gubernatorial veto or time limitations for introduction.

Section 2. Be it further resolved that this proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the gubernatorial primary election to be held in 1999.

Section 3. Be it further resolved that on the official ballot to be used at the election there shall be printed a proposition, upon which the electors of the state shall be permitted to vote FOR or AGAINST, to amend the Constitution of Louisiana, which proposition shall read as follows:

To prohibit the legislature, during regular legislative sessions in odd-numbered years, from considering legislation which levies, authorizes, or increases a state or statewide tax or fee or which dedicates state revenue; to allow the legislature, during regular legislative sessions in even-numbered years, to consider legislation which levies, authorizes, increases, decreases, or repeals a tax or fee or which dedicates revenue, and local and special bills provided such bills are properly advertised and are not otherwise prohibited by the constitution; to allow the legislature, during regular legislative session in even-numbered years, to consider certain legislation which is not within the subject matter limitations if such legislation is prefiled, provided each member may not prefile more than five such instruments; to require prefiling of bills, subject to certain exceptions, no later than five o'clock on the tenth calendar day prior to the first day of a regular legislative session; to provide for certain time limits for the introduction and consideration on final passage of matters intended to have the effect of law; and to allow the legislature to change certain procedural matters relating to sessions by a two-thirds vote.

(Amends Article III, Section 2(A))
