C. If the father is unidentified, it is not necessary to appoint a curator ad hoc for that parent. The father shall be considered unidentified if the biological father's name is not provided on the birth certificate, there is no presumed father, and no party to the proceedings is able to provide a first and last name of a putative father or alias sufficient to provide a reasonable possibility of identification and location.

Art. 1004. Petition for termination of parental rights; authorization to file

D. The department may petition for the termination of parental rights of the parent of the child when any of the following apply:

(6) The child is in foster care and, despite diligent efforts by the department to identify the child's father, his identity is unknown and termination is authorized by Article 1015(10).

Art. 1015. Grounds

The grounds for termination of parental rights are:

(10) The child is in the custody of the department pursuant to a court order for at least one year, unless sooner permitted by the court, and the identity of the child's father remains unknown despite diligent efforts by the department to identify and locate the father by the following:

(a) In the course of investigating the case and providing services to the family the department has been unable to learn the identity of the father.

(b) No party to the proceedings is able to provide a first and last name of a putative father or alias sufficient to provide a reasonable possibility of identification and location.

(c) A certified copy of the child's birth certificate with no one indicated thereon as the father of the child, or the father listed has been determined not to be the biological father of the child.

(d) A recent certificate from the putative father registry indicating that no person is listed or registered as the child's father.

(e) A recent certificate from the clerk of court in the parish in which the child was born indicating that no acknowledgment with respect to this child has been recorded.

Art. 1016. Right to counsel

A. The child and the identified parent shall each have the right to be represented by separate counsel in a termination proceeding brought under this Title. Neither the child nor anyone purporting to act on his behalf may be permitted to waive the child's right to counsel.

Art. 1023. Service; absentee parent, unidentified father

C. If the father is unidentified, it is not necessary to appoint a curator ad hoc for that parent. The father shall be considered unidentified if the biological father's name is not provided on the birth certificate, there is no presumed father, and no party to the proceedings is able to provide a first and last name of a putative father or alias sufficient to provide a reasonable possibility of identification and location.

Art. 1025.4. Prehearing and scheduling conference; order

A. At the appearance, on its own motion or on motion of counsel, the court shall direct counsel for the petitioner, for the parents, and for the child to appear before it for a conference to consider the following:

(2) Efforts to identify and locate an unidentified or absent parent and relatives or other individuals willing and able to offer a wholesome and stable home for the child.

CHAPTER 3. LOUISIANA FELONY CLASS SYSTEM
TASK FORCE

§601. Louisiana Felony Class System Task Force

A. The legislature hereby finds that it is in the best interest of the public to have, to the greatest extent possible, a clear, regular, and simple sentencing system, whereby nearly every felony offense falls into a class, with sentencing to be imposed by designated class, to ensure consistency across crimes of similar severity and greater transparency for victims, defendants, and criminal justice practitioners. Such a system will henceforth be referred to as a felony class system.

B. Accordingly, the Legislature of Louisiana hereby authorizes and directs the creation of the Louisiana Felony Class System Task Force to study, evaluate, and develop a recommendation for a felony class system to the legislature before the 2018 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature.

C.(1) The membership of the task force shall be as follows:

(a) Three persons designated by the president of Louisiana District Attorneys Association.

(b) Three persons designated by the state public defender.

(c) Three persons designated by the chief justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court.

(2)(a) The names of the persons who are to serve on the task force shall be submitted to the chief justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court on or before July 1, 2017.

(b) The chief justice shall call the first meeting of the task force, which meeting shall be held on or before July 15, 2017.

(c) At the first meeting of the task force, its members shall elect from their membership a chairman and vice chairman and such other officers as the task force may deem advisable. The chief justice, or the chief justice's designee, shall preside over the task force until a chairman is elected.

(d) The task force shall meet a minimum of six times between July 15, 2017, and February 1, 2018, and may hold public hearings as part of its evaluation process. Meetings of the task force shall be held in the state capital.

D. The task force shall prepare and submit a final report of its findings and recommendations, including but not limited to any specific and complete draft legislation, to the governor, the speaker of the House of Representatives, the president of the Senate, the chairman of the House Committee on Administration of Criminal Justice, the chairman of the Senate Committee on Judiciary C, and the chief justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court, no later than February 1, 2018. The report shall be made available to the public and the task force shall be abolished upon submission of the report.

E.(1) The task force may apply for, contract for, receive, and expend for purposes of this Chapter any appropriation or grant from the state, its political subdivisions, the federal government, or any other public or private source.

(2) The books and records of the task force shall be subject to audit by the legislative auditor pursuant to R.S. 24:513.

F. This Chapter shall become null and of no effect on February 2, 2018.

Section 2. R.S. 40:966(B), (C), (D), (E), and (F), 967(B) and (C), 968(B), 969(B) and (C), and 970(B) and (C) are hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 40:967(D) is enacted to read as follows:

"A. Any person who, after having been convicted within this state of a felony, or who, after having been convicted under the laws of any other state or of the United States, or any foreign government of a crime which, if committed in this state would be a felony, thereafter commits any subsequent felony within this state, upon conviction of said felony, shall be punished as follows:

(1) If the second felony is such that upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for any term less than his natural life, then the sentence to imprisonment shall be for a determinate term not less than ~~one-half~~ one-third the longest term and not more than twice the longest term prescribed for a first conviction.

(3) If the third felony is such that upon a first conviction, the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for any term less than his natural life then:

(a) The person shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a determinate term not less than ~~two-thirds~~ one half of the longest possible sentence for the conviction and not more than twice the longest possible sentence prescribed for a first conviction; or

(4) If the fourth or subsequent felony is such that, upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for any term less than his natural life then:

(a) The person shall be sentenced to imprisonment for the fourth or subsequent felony for a determinate term not less than the longest prescribed for a first conviction but in no event less than twenty years and not more than his natural life; or

(b) If the fourth felony and no prior felony is defined as a crime of violence under R.S. 14:2(B) or as a sex offense under R.S. 15:541, the person shall be imprisoned for not less than twenty years nor more than twice the longest possible sentence prescribed for a first conviction. If twice the possible sentence prescribed for a first conviction is less than twenty years, the person shall be imprisoned for twenty years; or

(c) If the fourth felony and two of the prior felonies are felonies defined as a crime of violence under R.S. 14:2(B), a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:540 et seq. when the victim is under the age of eighteen at the time of commission of the offense, or as a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law punishable by imprisonment for ten years or more, or of any other crime punishable by imprisonment for twelve years or more, or any combination of such crimes; the person shall be imprisoned for the remainder of his natural life, without benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence."

AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 2, delete lines 2 through 22 and insert the following:

"C.(1) Except as provided in Paragraph (2) of this Subsection, the The current offense shall not be counted as, respectively, a second, third, fourth, or higher offense if more than ~~ten five~~ ten five years have elapsed between the date of the commission of the current offense or offenses and the expiration of the ~~maximum sentence or sentences of correctional supervision, or term of incarceration if no supervision, for~~ maximum sentence or the previous conviction or convictions, or between the expiration of the ~~maximum sentence or~~ sentences of correctional supervision, or term of incarceration if no supervision, for each preceding conviction or convictions alleged in the multiple offender bill and the date of the commission of the following offense or offenses. In computing the intervals of time as provided herein, any period of parole, probation, or incarceration by a person in a penal institution, within or without the state, shall not be included in the computation of any of said ~~ten-year~~ five-year periods between the expiration of the ~~maximum sentence or sentences~~ correctional supervision, or term of incarceration if no supervision, and the next succeeding offense or offenses.

(2) The current offense shall not be counted as, respectively, a second, third, fourth, or higher offense if more than ten years have elapsed between the date of the commission of the current offense or offenses and the expiration of correctional supervision, or term of incarceration if no supervision, for a crime of violence as defined in R.S. 14:2(B) or a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:541, or between the expiration of correctional supervision, or term of incarceration if no supervision, for each preceding conviction or convictions alleged in the multiple offender bill for a crime of violence as defined in R.S. 14:2(B) or a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:541 and the date of the commission of the following offense or offenses. In computing the intervals of time as provided herein, any period of parole, probation, or incarceration by a person in a penal institution, within or without the state, shall not be included in the computation of any of said ten-year periods between the expiration of correctional supervision, or term of incarceration if no supervision, for a crime of violence as defined in R.S. 14:2(B) or a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:541 and the next succeeding offense or offenses.

I. If the court finds that a sentence imposed under the provisions of this Section would be constitutionally excessive pursuant to the criteria set forth in State v. Dorthey, 623 So.2d 1276 (La., 1993), then the court shall state for the record the reasons for such finding and shall impose the most severe sentence that is not constitutionally excessive.

J. For purposes of this Section, "correctional supervision" means any period of parole, probation, or incarceration of a person in a penal institution, either within the state of Louisiana or outside of the state.

Section 2. This Act shall become effective November 1, 2017, and shall have prospective application only to offenders whose convictions became final on or after November 1, 2017."

On motion of Senator Claitor, the committee amendment was adopted. The amended bill was read by title, ordered engrossed and passed to a third reading.
