SENATOR ROBERT ADLEY HONORED BY NATIONAL FEDERATION OF INDEPENDENT BUSINESS (NFIB) LOUISIANA

COMMENDED FOR HIS DEDICATION TO SMALL BUSINESS

BATON ROUGE, Aug. 17, 2011 - The National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB), Louisiana's leading small-business association, honored State Senator Robert Adley with its prestigious Senate Guardian of Small Business award. He represents the 36th District.

The Guardian of Small Business award is the most prestigious honor that NFIB bestows on legislators in recognition of their efforts to support small business issues. NFIB/Louisiana's Leadership Council presents the award to one member of each chamber of the Legislature for their efforts to help small businesses.

"Senator Adley was a tireless advocate of small business in this year's legislative session," said Renee Baker, state director of NFIB/Louisiana. "His 88 percent NFIB/Louisiana voting record in this year's session demonstrates his dogged support for Main Street, Louisiana."

Adley is vice-chairman of the Senate Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Committee. He is a vocal critic of proposed tax increases that would affect small businesses and he supported legislation to repeal the capital gains tax in last year's Regular Legislative Session.

He also sponsored health insurance claims reform and transparency legislation that would have helped small businesses find and keep affordable health insurance for themselves, their employees and their families.

"Whatever the issue, Senator Adley has worked hard to make things better for small businesses throughout the state," Baker said. "NFIB/Louisiana is pleased to recognize his efforts by presenting him with the Senate Guardian of Small Business award."
