SENATOR SHARON WESTON BROOME TO BE HONORED AS ONE OF LOUISIANA'S MOST POWERFUL AND INFLUENTIAL WOMEN

District 15 State Senator Sharon Weston Broome (D - Baton Rouge) will be recognized as one of "Louisiana's Most Powerful and Influential Women" of 2011 by the Louisiana Diversity Council at their 3rd Annual Louisiana Women's Conference on Friday, September 23 in New Orleans. Sen. Broome, current Senate President Pro Tempore, is being commended for her leadership, professional excellence, commitment to community and contributions to Louisiana.

"It is certainly an honor and privilege to be recognized this way by this national organization that promotes efforts of women in all walks of life to improve their communities," says Sen. Broome.

The Louisiana Diversity Council is a member of the National Council Diversity, an organization committed to diversity and the transformation of the work place and community into environments where people are valued for their uniqueness. The Most Powerful and Influential Women awards are given by the Council to recognize women who are accomplished members of society.
