SENATOR CLAITOR CONGRATULATES ALYSSA SCHULENBERG ON TULANE LEGISLATIVE SCHOLARSHIP FOR FALL 2014 – SPRING 2015

State Senator Dan Claitor, as steward for the Tulane Legislative Scholarship for Senate District 16, is pleased to announce that Tulane University has selected Alyssa Schulenberg as the Fall 2014 - Spring 2015 recipient of the Tulane Legislative Scholarship. Ms. Schulenberg, a 2014 graduate of The Louisiana School for Math, Science, and the Arts, was selected by Tulane from more than 75 qualified and admitted applicants that reside in Louisiana Senate District 16.

"I am pleased that Senate District 16 was able to hand off the selection process of the Tulane Legislative Scholarship to Tulane University," said Sen. Claitor. "Tulane, with the resources available to the university and with the legislature removed from the process, provided the entire local applicant pool a fair shot at the Legislative Scholarship. With more than 75 qualified and admitted applicants hailing from the district, Alyssa is to be congratulated on her selection. I urge my fellow legislators to follow suit and remove themselves from the selection process and to allow Tulane to award the scholarships on their behalf in the future. "
