Caroline Boley, of Shreveport, was honored on the Senate floor on March 24, 2014 with Senate Resolution 8, authored by Senator Barrow Peacock. She received the University Medal, LSU's highest honor, at commencement in Baton Rouge in December. She was also 2010 valedictorian of Captain Shreve High School. Boley maintained a 4.0 at LSU while majoring in History. LSU Chancellor and President Dr. F. King Alexander stood with Boley while the resolution was read and then the honoree and her parents, Fred and Carolyn Boley, met with Gov. Bobby Jindal in his office, along with Sen. Peacock. Boley was an intern in Jindal's office in 2011. If you have any questions, please contact Sen. Peacock's office at 318.741.7180.
