

NEWS RELEASE

5/27/11

The Council for the Development of French in Louisiana (CODOFIL), in cooperation with the Acadiana Delegation of the Louisiana Legislature, is pleased to announce that free French lessons will be offered this summer to elementary and middle school children throughout the region.

CODOFIL and the Acadiana Delegation are inviting all of the children of the area to any or all of these lessons, regardless of their parish of domicile. Parents are welcome.

Every Saturday morning from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m., beginning on June 4 through August 13 (with the exception of July 2 due to the 4th of July weekend), free lessons in basic French will be taught by an outstanding, certified instructor: in Abbeville, Madame Michelle Fontenot; in New Iberia, Madame Agnes Cappello; in Scott, Madame Jan Skinner; and in Rayne and Cankton, Madame Ashlee Michot.

Here are the dates and locations: June 4 & 25: Abbeville, Abbeville Cultural & Heritage Alliance,
200 N. Magdalen Sq. (the old Vermilion Parish Library)

June 11 & July 23: Rayne, Southside Center
403 Fourth Street

June 18 & August 6: New Iberia City Park Community Center
300 Parkview St.

July 9 & August 13: Cankton, Cankton City Hall,
107 Dandurand, (across from the church)

July 16 and July 30: Scott, The Begnaud House,
110 Benoit Patin Road, Exit #97 off Interstate-10

For additional information, please call 337-262-5810 and ask for Elaine or 225-767-4449 and ask for Maurice.