(c) There is reason to doubt the authenticity or correctness of the recipient's identification.

(d) The recipient refuses to sign for the receipt of the delivery.

D. A retail dealer shall keep a record of all deliveries of alcoholic beverages and retain such records for two years from the date of the delivery. The retail dealer shall make such records available to the commissioner of the office of alcohol and tobacco control upon request for the purpose of investigating and enforcing the provisions of this Title. The record of each delivery shall include:

(1) The retail dealer's name, address, and permit number.

(2) The name of the person who placed the order and the date, time, and method of the order.

(3) The name of the delivery agent and the date, time, and address of the delivery.

(4) The type, brand, and quantity of each alcoholic beverage delivered.

(5) The name, date of birth, and signature of the person who received the delivery.

§154. Alcoholic beverages delivery agreements; requirements; limitations

A. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a retail dealer possessing a valid permit issued pursuant to this Chapter may enter into a written agreement with a third party for the use of an internet or mobile application or similar technology platform to facilitate the sale of alcoholic beverages for delivery to consumers for personal consumption within this state and the third party may deliver alcoholic beverages to the consumer.

B. An alcoholic beverage delivery agreement between a retail dealer and a third party shall require all of the following:

(1) Only alcoholic beverages purchased from a wholesale dealer licensed pursuant to this Chapter are offered for delivery.

(2) Only alcoholic beverages intended for personal consumption and delivered in a manufacturer sealed container are offered for delivery. The delivery of an "open alcoholic beverage container" as defined in R.S. 32:300 is prohibited.

(3) Alcoholic beverages are delivered only on the days and during the hours the retail dealer is authorized to sell or serve alcoholic beverages.
(4) Alcoholic beverages are only delivered in those areas where the sale of alcoholic beverages is permitted. Delivery of alcoholic beverages in an area where the sale of alcoholic beverages has been prohibited by a referendum vote is prohibited.

(5) No alcoholic beverages shall be delivered to a state college, university, or technical college or institute or an independent college or university located in this state.

(6) The alcoholic beverages of all deliveries refused by a third party shall be returned to the place of purchase.

(7) Alcoholic beverages are delivered only by a person that meets all of the following:

   (a) The person is eighteen years of age or older.

   (b) The person is an employee of an independent contractor of the third party.

   (c) The person possesses a valid server permit as provided in R.S. 26:931 et seq.

(8) The retail dealer shall manage and control the sale of alcoholic beverages. Such responsibilities shall include, but not be limited to:

   (a) Determine the alcoholic beverages to be offered for sale through a third party's internet or mobile application platform or similar technology.

   (b) Determine the price at which alcoholic beverages are offered for sale through a third party's internet or mobile application platform or similar technology.

   (c) Accept or reject all orders placed for alcoholic beverages through a third party's internet or mobile application platform or similar technology.

   (d) Collect and remit all applicable state and local taxes.

   (e) The retail dealer shall only enter into alcoholic beverage delivery agreements with a third party that meets all of the following:

      (1) The third party is properly registered and authorized to conduct business in Louisiana.

      (2) The third party does not hold a Louisiana alcoholic beverage delivery permit of any class or type.

      (3) The third party maintains not less than two million dollars in liability insurance for the duration of the agreement with the retail dealer and provides proof of coverage to the retail dealer.

      (4) The third party is able to monitor the routes of its employees during deliveries.

      (5) The third party conducts an in-person interview and a background check on all employees that will deliver alcoholic beverages.

      (6) A retail dealer may pay a third party a fee for its services and a third party may charge a reasonable delivery fee for orders delivered by the third party. A third party may act as an agent of a retail dealer in the collection of payments from the sale of alcoholic beverages, but the full amount of each order must be handled in a manner that gives the retail dealer control over the ultimate receipt of the payment from the consumer.

      (7) Alcoholic beverages are delivered only by a person that meets all of the following:

         (a) Be eighteen years of age or older.

         (b) Be an employee of the retail dealer.

         (c) Possesses a valid server permit as provided in R.S. 26:931 et seq.

E.(1) The third party may receive orders and accept payment via the internet or through a mobile application or similar technology.

(2) At the time of delivery of alcoholic beverages, the third party's delivery agent shall:

   (a) Verify the recipient's date of birth.

   (b) Verify that the recipient is twenty-one years of age or older.

   (c) Obtain the recipient's signature.

   (d) The third party's delivery agent shall refuse delivery and return the alcoholic beverages to the place of purchase if:

      (a) The recipient does not produce a valid and current form of identification as provided in R.S. 26:90(A)(1).

      (b) The recipient is intoxicated.

      (c) There is reason to doubt the authenticity or correctness of the recipient's identification.

      (d) The recipient refuses to sign for the receipt of the delivery.

   F. A record of each delivery of alcoholic beverages shall be kept for two years from the date of delivery and made available to the commissioner of the office of alcohol and tobacco control upon request for the purpose of investigating and enforcing the provisions of this Title. The record of each delivery shall include:

   (1) The delivery agent's name, address, and permit number.

   (2) The name of the person who placed the order and the date, time, and method of the order.

   (4) The type, brand, and quantity of each alcoholic beverage delivered.

   (5) The name, date of birth, and signature of the person who received the delivery.

   (6) The alcoholic beverages of all deliveries refused by a third party shall be returned to the place of purchase.

   (7) Alcoholic beverages are delivered only by a person that meets all of the following:

      (a) The person is eighteen years of age or older.

      (b) The person is an employee of an independent contractor of the third party.

      (c) The person possesses a valid server permit as provided in R.S. 26:931 et seq.

(8) The retail dealer shall manage and control the sale of alcoholic beverages. Such responsibilities shall include, but not be limited to:

   (a) Determine the alcoholic beverages to be offered for sale through a third party's internet or mobile application platform or similar technology.

   (b) Determine the price at which alcoholic beverages are offered for sale through a third party's internet or mobile application platform or similar technology.

   (c) Accept or reject all orders placed for alcoholic beverages through a third party's internet or mobile application platform or similar technology.

   (d) Collect and remit all applicable state and local taxes.

   (e) The retail dealer shall only enter into alcoholic beverage delivery agreements with a third party that meets all of the following:

      (1) The third party is properly registered and authorized to conduct business in Louisiana.

      (2) The third party does not hold a Louisiana alcoholic beverage delivery permit of any class or type.

      (3) The third party maintains not less than two million dollars in liability insurance for the duration of the agreement with the retail dealer and provides proof of coverage to the retail dealer.

      (4) The third party is able to monitor the routes of its employees during deliveries.

         (a) Be eighteen years of age or older.

         (b) Be an employee of the retail dealer.

         (c) Possesses a valid server permit as provided in R.S. 26:931 et seq.

C.(1) A retail dealer may charge a reasonable delivery fee and may receive orders and accept payment in person at the licensed premises, via telephone, via the internet, or through a mobile application or similar technology.

(2) At the time of delivery of alcoholic beverages, a retail dealer's delivery agent shall:

   (a) Verify the recipient's date of birth.

   (b) Verify that the recipient is twenty-one years of age or older.

   (c) Obtain the recipient's signature.

   (d) The retail dealer's delivery agent shall refuse delivery and return the alcoholic beverages to the licensed premises if:

D. (1) A collector may elect to send to a taxpayer or dealer by regular mail a copy of the notice of assessment containing the same information and addressed in the same manner as provided for in Subsection A of this Section. If the collector mails this regular mail notice on the same date and to the same address as the collector mails a notice of assessment by certified mail, then the notice transmitted by regular mail shall be deemed to have been received by the taxpayer or dealer on the seventh business day from the date of mailing. A certificate of mailing or other proof of mailing from the United States Postal Service shall establish that this copy of the notice of assessment was transmitted by regular mail. Other evidence may be used to alternatively establish the presumption of delivery provided for in this Subsection, including an affidavit of the person who transmitted the notice attesting to the fact that it was transmitted in accordance with the provisions of this Subsection.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, if a collector, in his sole discretion, chooses not to send the letter provided for in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, the absence of transmitting the notice by regular mail shall not be used to establish that a notice of assessment was either not mailed or not received.

(3) If a collector, in his sole discretion, sends the letter provided for in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, the transmittal of the notice shall have no impact on the time within which the amount of the assessment is required to be paid or paid under protest, the time within which any appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals is required to be made as provided for in Subsection A of this Section, or the time within which the assessment becomes final as provided for in Subsection B of this Section.
