AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 1, between lines 14 and 15, insert the following:

"§3399.31. Definitions

For the purposes of this Part, the following words, terms, and phrases shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Expressive activities" include but are not limited to any lawful verbal or written means by which individuals communicate ideas to one another, including all forms of peaceful assembly, protests, speeches, distribution of literature, carrying signs, and circulating petitions.

(2) "Outdoor areas" are outside areas generally accessible to the majority of students, administrators, faculty and staff, such as grassy areas, walkways, or other similar common areas, and does not include areas where access is restricted.

(3) "Student organization" means an officially recognized group at a public postsecondary education institution, or a group seeking official recognition, comprised of admitted students.

§3399.32. Expressive activities; public postsecondary institutions; protected

A. Expressive activities at public postsecondary education institutions by students, administrators, faculty members, staff members, and invited guests are protected.

B. Any person who wishes to engage in noncommercial expressive activity on the campus of a public postsecondary education institution shall be permitted to do so freely, as long as the person's conduct is not unlawful and does not materially and substantially disrupt the functioning of the institution.

C. The outdoor areas of a public postsecondary institution shall be deemed traditional public forums and open to expressive activities. Nothing in this Paragraph shall be interpreted as limiting the right of student expression elsewhere on campus.

D. A public postsecondary education institution may maintain and enforce reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions narrowly tailored in service of a significant institutional interest only when such restrictions employ clear, published, content and viewpoint-neutral criteria, and provide for ample alternative means of expression. Any such restrictions shall allow for spontaneously and contemporaneously assembly and distribution of literature.

E. Nothing in this Part shall be interpreted as preventing institutions from prohibiting, limiting, or restricting expression that the First Amendment does not protect, such as threats and expressions directed to provoke and likely to produce imminent lawless actions, or prohibiting harassment.

§3399.33. Freedom of association; student organizations

No public postsecondary education institution shall deny a belief-based student organization any benefit or privilege available to any other student organization, or otherwise discriminate against a belief-based organization, based on the expression of the organization, including any requirement that the leaders or members of the organization:

(1) Affirm and adhere to the organization's sincerely held beliefs.

(2) Comply with the organization's standards of conduct.

(3) Further the organization's mission or purpose, as defined by the organization.

§3399.34. Institutional policies on free expression

Each public postsecondary education institution shall develop policies, regulations, and expectations of students regarding free expression and association on campus that are consistent with this Part and the policies of its management board. The policies shall outline the rights of students, administrators, faculty, and staff and shall:

(1) Be made public in the institution's handbooks, on its website, and through student orientation programs.

(2) Be incorporated in the materials, programs, and procedures provided to all faculty and staff, including administrators, campus police officers, residence life officials, and professors.

(3) Provide information regarding the procedures whereby a person aggrieved by a violation of this Part or the institution's policies on free expression may seek relief.

AMENDMENT NO. 5

On page 1, after line 15 insert the following:

"§63. Standard of care; limitation of liability; penalties

A.(1) Any licensed physician licensed or permitted by the Louisiana State Board of Medical Examiners, psychologist, medical psychologist, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, or public and private general hospital personnel exercising that degree of skill and care ordinarily employed, under similar circumstances by members of his profession in good standing in the same community or locality, and using reasonable care and diligence with his best judgment in the application of his skill, shall not be held civilly liable or subject to criminal prosecution for acts arising from his professional opinions which fall within the scope of his duties, judgments, actions, or duties pursuant to any of the provisions of this Part, unless the damage or injury was caused by willful or wanton negligence or gross misconduct. This limitation of liability shall apply only to public and private general hospital personnel who within the preceding twelve-month period have received appropriate training in nonviolent crisis intervention. Such training shall be documented in their personnel files. The training shall be provided by an instructor who has attended a course in crisis intervention taught by a certified instructor.

* * *

B. Any licensed physician licensed or permitted by the Louisiana State Board of Medical Examiners, psychologist, medical psychologist, or psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner who executes an emergency certificate shall be held to that degree of skill and care ordinarily employed, under similar circumstances, by members of his profession in good standing in the same community or locality, and using reasonable care and diligence with his best judgment in the application of his skill.

"§1738.1. Immunity from liability; gratuitous emergency care to domestic animal

A. There shall be no liability on the part of a person for property damage or trespass to a motor vehicle, if the damage was caused while the person was rescuing an animal in distress as provided in this Section. The immunity from liability for property damage to a motor vehicle as provided herein does not affect a person's liability for bodily injury suffered by the animal while the person was rescuing the animal.

B. The immunity provided by Subsection A of this Section shall apply only if the person:

(1) Makes a good-faith attempt, based on the circumstances known to the person at the time, to locate the owner of the motor vehicle before entering, forcibly or otherwise, the vehicle.

(2) Contacts the local law enforcement agency, the fire department, animal control, or the 911 emergency operator before entering the motor vehicle forcibly or otherwise.

(3) Determines the motor vehicle is locked and has a good-faith belief that there are no other reasonable means for the animal to be removed from the vehicle.

(4) Believes that removal of the animal from the motor vehicle is necessary because the animal is in imminent danger of death.

(5) Uses force that was reasonably necessary under the circumstances to enter the motor vehicle to rescue the animal.

(6) Places a notice on the windshield of the motor vehicle providing details of the person's contact information, the reason the entry was made, the location of the animal, and notice that the proper authorities have been notified.

(7) Remains with the animal in a safe location, out of the elements of nature but reasonably close to the motor vehicle, until emergency responders from law enforcement, fire, or animal control arrive, unless the person cannot remain with the animal, in which case the person shall notify the local law enforcement agency, the fire department, animal control, or the 911 emergency operator, as applicable, before leaving the motor vehicle, and shall then take the animal to the closest shelter, as applicable.

C. As used in this Section:

(1) "Animal" means any cat or dog kept for pleasure, companionship, or other purposes that are not purely commercial.

(2) "Unattended" means an animal who has been left in a motor vehicle when the driver or operator of the vehicle is no more than thirty feet from the vehicle or cannot be contacted by verbally calling out for the owner of the vehicle.

(3) "In distress" means any condition that endangers the health or well-being of an animal due to heat, cold, or lack of adequate ventilation or any other circumstances that could reasonably be expected to cause suffering, disability, or death."

On motion of Senator Allain, the amendments were adopted.

The bill was read by title. Senator Carter moved the final passage of the amended bill.
