On page 1, between lines 14 and 15 insert the following:
"WHEREAS, there are behavioral health specific responses and services designed in association with a comprehensive crisis system of care that is modern, innovative, and coordinated; and

WHEREAS, a statewide model for crisis response that maintains regional and geographic relevance and builds upon the unique and varied strengths, resources, and needs of Louisiana's individual communities will reduce and divert from both law enforcement response and reliance on hospitals for crisis treatment as the default provider; and

WHEREAS, such a crisis response system encompasses a continuum of services that includes crisis prevention, acute intervention and post-crisis recovery services and supports; provides interventions to divert individuals from institutional levels of care including inpatient placements, emergency department utilization, nursing facility placement, and other out-of-home settings; and provides timely access to a range of acute crisis responses, including locally available home- and community-based services and mobile crisis response, resulting in a crisis continuum that includes and respects a bed-based crisis service but does not rely on that level of service as the foundation of the crisis continuum; and

WHEREAS, nationally accepted best practices include Mobile Crisis Response (MCR), a community-based response intended to provide relief, resolution, and intervention to individuals where they are located through crisis supports and services during the first phase of a crisis in the community and Community Brief Crisis Support (CBCS), an ongoing crisis intervention response designed to provide relief, resolution, and intervention through maintaining the member at home or in the community, de-escalating behavioral health needs, referring for treatment needs, and coordinating with local providers; and"
