§1020.61. Selective application of prior authorization

A.(1) Every health insurance issuer authorized to do business in this state, shall implement and maintain a program that allows for the selective application of reducing prior authorization requirements that are based on the stratification of health care providers' performance and adherence to evidence-based medicine. The program shall promote quality, affordable health care, and reduce unnecessary administrative burdens for both the health insurance issuer and the health care provider. Criteria for participation by health care providers and the health care services included in the program excluding pharmacy services shall be at the sole discretion of the health insurance issuer. A health insurance issuer shall submit to the Louisiana Department of Insurance a filing, in accordance with Subsection B of this Section, concerning the program that includes a full narrative description, the criteria for participation, a listing of the procedures and services subject to selective application of prior authorization and the number of health care providers participating in the program.

(2) For the purposes of this Section, "health insurance issuer" shall have the same meaning as provided for in R.S. 22:1019.1.

B. The filing shall be in a form and manner provided for by the Louisiana Department of Insurance, promulgated in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, and shall be submitted initially by July 1, 2023, and each time the health insurance issuer makes a filing in accordance with R.S. 22:571 thereafter.

Section 2. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval."

"Art. 305. Divestiture of juvenile court jurisdiction; original criminal court jurisdiction over children

A.(1) * * *

(2) Hereafter, the child is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the appropriate court exercising criminal jurisdiction for all subsequent procedures, including the review of bail applications, and the court exercising criminal jurisdiction may order that the child be transferred to the appropriate adult facility for detention prior to his trial as an adult if the child has not been transferred pursuant to Article 306(D)(1).

* * *

Art. 306. Places of detention; juveniles subject to criminal court jurisdiction

D.(1)(a) If at the conclusion of the continued custody hearing, the court determines that the child meets the age requirements and that there is probable cause that the child has committed one of the offenses enumerated in Article 305, the court shall order him held for trial as an adult for the appropriate court of criminal jurisdiction.

(b) If the child is seventeen years of age at the time of the commission of an offense enumerated in Article 305(A)(1), for which the court has found probable cause and the court finds if is in the interest of justice pursuant to Article 821(E)(2), the court shall order the child transferred to the appropriate adult facility for detention prior to his trial as an adult.

(c) If the child is seventeen years of age at the time of the commission of an offense enumerated in Article 305(B)(2) that is also a crime of violence as defined in R.S. 14:2(B), for which the court has found probable cause.

(2) If the child is not ordered transferred to an appropriate adult facility for detention at the conclusion of the continued custody hearing, the appropriate court of criminal jurisdiction may thereafter order that the child be held in any facility used for the pretrial detention of accused adults and the child shall apply to the appropriate court of criminal jurisdiction for a preliminary hearing, bail, and for any other rights to which he may be entitled under the Code of Criminal Procedure.

AMENDMENT NO. 5

On page 2, after line 7, insert the following:

"Art. 821. Continued custody hearing

E.(1) If probable cause has been demonstrated, the court may release the child. The court may also require bail or other security pursuant to Articles 823 through 825 if the court finds that such is necessary to secure the child's appearance for subsequent hearings.

(2) If probable cause has been demonstrated for any offense enumerated in Article 305(A)(1), the court shall determine whether it is in the interest of justice for the child to be transferred to the appropriate adult facility for detention prior to his trial as an adult. In making this determination, the court shall consider the following:

- (a) The age of the child.
- (b) The physical and mental maturity of the child.
- (c) The present mental state of the child, including whether the child presents an imminent risk of harm to himself.
- (d) The nature and circumstances of the alleged offense.
