On page 1, delete lines 10 through 20 in their entirety and delete page 2 in its entirety and insert the following:

"Section 1. R.S. 6:1055 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§1055. Money transmitter delivery of funds requirement

A. Every money transmitter licensee and its authorized delegates shall transmit the monetary equivalent of all money or equivalent value received from a customer for transmission, net of any fees, or issue instructions committing the money or its monetary equivalent, to the person designated by the customer within ten business days after receiving the money or equivalent value, unless otherwise ordered by the customer, accepted under the terms of a contract for stored value or when the transmission is for the payment of goods or services or unless the licensee or its authorized delegate has reason to believe that a crime has occurred, is occurring, or may occur as a result of transmitting the money.

B. For purposes of this Section, money is considered to have been transmitted when it is available to the person designated by the customer and a reasonable effort has been made to inform the designated person that the money is available, whether or not the designated person has taken possession of the money.

C.(1) Any provision in a money transmitter licensee contract or user policy which provides a financial penalty or stipulated damages for executing a lawful and valid transaction under federal and state law is manifestly unreasonable, contrary to public policy, and shall be null and void.

(2) A money transmitter licensee shall provide notice to a customer of any transaction as provided in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection that the money transmitter finds to be or is suspected of being in violation of the contract or user policy. Any funds seized by the money transmitter prior to providing such notice and found to be from a lawful and valid transaction under federal and state law shall be returned to the consumer.

D. The enforcement of any choice-of-law provision in a money transmitter licensee contract or user policy that would result in a contravention of the public policy of this state as expressed by Subsection C of this Section shall be null and void.

E. A money transmitter licensee that seizes or holds funds pursuant to a service contract or user policy provision that is subject to nullification as provided by this Section shall return to the client any funds held or seized as a result of such violation and such money transmitter licensee may cancel the service contract.

F. A violation of this Section shall be considered an unfair trade practice and shall subject violators to the provisions of R.S. 51:1401 et seq. Entities covered by this Section shall be subject to the enforcement powers of the commissioner of the office of financial institutions as provided in R.S. 6:121.1. For purposes of this Section, the provisions of R.S. 51:1406 shall not apply to a money transmitter licensee.

G. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to any federally insured financial institution, its subsidiaries, and affiliates."
