§297.10. Tax deduction; elementary and secondary school tuition
A. There shall be allowed a deduction from tax table income for the sum of amounts paid during the taxable year by a taxpayer for tuition and fees required for a student's enrollment in a nonpublic elementary or secondary school which complies with the criteria set forth in Brumfield, et al. v. Dodd, et al. 425 F. Supp. 528 and Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or to any public elementary or secondary laboratory school which is operated by a public college or university, if the student qualifies as a dependency exemption is claimed as a dependent on the taxpayer's Louisiana federal income tax return. The deduction authorized by this Section shall be equal to the actual amount of tuition and fees paid by the taxpayer per child, but no more than six thousand dollars of deduction per child may be allowed to one or more taxpayers if the child qualifies as a dependency exemption is claimed as a dependent on the taxpayer's Louisiana federal income tax return for either the taxable year or the prior taxable year. The amount of the deduction authorized in this Section shall not exceed the total taxable income of the individual.

§297.11. Tax deduction; educational expenses for home-schooled children

A. There shall be allowed a deduction from tax table income for educational expenses paid during the taxable year by a taxpayer for home-schooling of a child if the child qualifies as a dependency exemption is claimed as a dependent on the taxpayer's Louisiana federal income tax return. The deduction authorized by this Section shall be equal to fifty percent of the actual amount of qualified educational expenses paid by the taxpayer for the home-schooling of each child, but no more than six thousand dollars of deduction per child may be allowed to one or more taxpayers if the child qualifies as a dependency exemption is claimed as a dependent on the taxpayer's Louisiana federal income tax return for either the taxable year or the prior taxable year. For purposes of this Section, qualified educational expenses shall include amounts expended for the purchase of textbooks and curricula necessary for home-schooling of each child. The amount of the deduction authorized by this Section shall not exceed the total taxable income of the individual.

* * *
§297.12. Tax deduction; fees and other educational expenses for a quality public education

A. There shall be allowed a deduction from tax table income for amounts paid during a tax year by a taxpayer which are associated with a student's enrollment in a public elementary or secondary school in order to ensure a quality education, if the student qualifies as a dependency exemption is claimed as a dependent on the taxpayer's Louisiana federal income tax return. For purposes of this Section, "amounts" shall include all of the following:

B.(1) The deduction authorized by this Section shall be equal to fifty percent of the actual amount paid by the taxpayer per student, but no more than six thousand dollars of deduction per student may be allowed to one or more taxpayers if the child qualifies as a dependency exemption is claimed as a dependent on the taxpayer's Louisiana federal income tax return for either the taxable year or the prior taxable year.

§70.4. Access device fraud
* * *

D. No person shall knowingly and with the intent to defraud possess fifteen or more counterfeit or misappropriated access devices.

D. E. As used herein in this Section:

(1) "Access device" means a person's social security number, driver's license number, birth date, mother's maiden name, checking account numbers, savings account numbers, personal identification numbers, electronic identification numbers, digital signatures, gift card, account information related to a gift card, or other means of account access that can be used to obtain anything of value, whether contemporaneously or not.

(2) "Counterfeit access device" means an access device that is fictitious, altered, or forged.

(3) "Device-making equipment" means any instrumentality, mechanism, or impression designed or primarily used for making an access device or counterfeit access device.

(4) "Gift card" means a card, code, or device that is issued to a consumer on a prepaid basis in a specified amount and is redeemable in exchange for goods or services. The value of the gift is either the maximum face value of the card when it is held for sale by the merchant or the actual value of the funds deposited with the merchant at the time of the activation and purchase.

~~(4)~~ (5) "Transfer" means sell, give, provide, or transmit.

E. ~~F.~~(1) A person who commits the crime of access device fraud when the misappropriation or taking amounts to a value of twenty-five thousand dollars or more shall be imprisoned at hard labor for not more than twenty years, ~~or~~ fined not more than fifty thousand dollars, or both.

(2) When the misappropriation or taking amounts to a value of five thousand dollars or more, but less than a value of twenty-five thousand dollars, the offender shall be imprisoned; with or without hard labor; for not more than ten years, ~~or~~ fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both.

(3) When the misappropriation or taking amounts to a value of one thousand dollars or more, but less than a value of five thousand dollars, the offender shall be imprisoned; with or without hard labor; for not more than five years, ~~or may be~~ fined not more than three thousand dollars, or both.

(4) When the misappropriation or taking amounts to a value of less than one thousand dollars, the offender shall be imprisoned for not more than six months, ~~or~~ fined not more than five hundred dollars, or both.

(5) Upon a third or subsequent conviction of theft, the offender shall be imprisoned; with or without hard labor; for not more than two years, ~~or may be~~ fined not more than two thousand dollars, or both.

F. ~~G.~~ In addition to any other penalty imposed under this Section, the court shall order restitution as a part of the sentence. ~~Restitution may include payment for any cost incurred by the victim, including attorney fees, costs associated in clearing the credit history or credit ratings of the victim, or costs incurred in connection with any civil or administrative proceedings to satisfy any debt, lien, or other obligation of the victim arising as a result of the actions of the defendant in accordance with Code of Criminal Procedure Article 883.2.~~

~~G.~~ H. When there has been a misappropriation or taking by a number of distinct acts of the offender, the aggregate amount of the misappropriation or taking shall determine the grade of the offense. For purposes of this Subsection, distinctive acts of the offender do not have to involve the same victim."
