SENATE BILL NO. 131— BY SENATOR PRESSLY

AN ACT

To amend and reenact R.S. 37:21, relative to professions and occupations; to provide relative to limiting recovery of attorney fees and costs in disciplinary proceedings initiated by professional or occupational licensing boards; to provide relative to licensees; to provide relative to negotiations; to provide relative to suspension and probationary periods; to provide relative to monetary fees; to provide relative to certain offers of judgments; to provide relative to consent order negotiations; to provide relative to attorney fees and costs incurred by the board; and to provide for related matters.

The bill was read by title. Returned from the House of Representatives with amendments:

HOUSE COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by House Committee on Commerce to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 131 by Senator Pressly

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 3, delete lines 14 through 22 in their entirety and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"D.(1) When a professional or occupational board initiates a disciplinary proceeding against a licensee and the final disposition of the proceeding results in a consent order, judgment, or finding in which the licensee is the prevailing party, the board shall not collect from the licensee any attorney fees or costs incurred by the board after a written offer of judgment.

(2) For purposes of this Subsection, a licensee is deemed the prevailing party when either of the following occurs:

(a) The licensee made a written offer of judgment, and the matter is subsequently terminated, dismissed, or resolved without an adverse finding against the licensee.

(b)(i) The consent order, judgment, or finding results in a disposition more favorable to the licensee than the terms previously offered by the licensee pursuant to this Subsection.

(ii) A result is considered more favorable to the licensee under any of the following circumstances:

(aa) The licensee offered a suspension period, and the final consent order, judgment, or finding imposes a suspension period shorter than or equal to that offered by the licensee.

(bb) The licensee offered a probationary period, and the final consent order, judgment, or finding imposes a probationary period shorter than or equal to that offered by the licensee.

(cc) The licensee offered payment of a monetary fine, and the final consent order, judgment, or finding imposes only a monetary fine in an amount less than or equal to that offered by the licensee.

(dd) The licensee offered a suspension of licensure, and the final consent order, judgment, or finding imposes no suspension of licensure, regardless of whether the final disposition includes a fine, probation, or both. For purposes of this Subitem, one day of suspension shall be deemed equivalent to fifteen days of probation when comparing disciplinary sanctions that include both suspension and probationary periods.

(ee) The final consent order, judgment, or finding imposes a combined suspension and probationary period that is less severe than or equal to that offered by the licensee. For purposes of this Subitem, one day of suspension shall be deemed equivalent to fifteen days of probation when comparing disciplinary sanctions that include both suspension and probationary periods.

(3) The provisions of this Subsection supersede any agency rule, regulation, custom, or practice governing the payment of attorney fees and costs to the extent that such rule, regulation, custom, or practice is less favorable to the licensee."

Senator Pressly moved to concur in the amendments proposed by the House.

§1201.1. Controversion of compensation and medical benefits

A. Upon the first payment of compensation ~~or upon any modification, suspension, termination, or controversion of compensation or medical benefits for any reason, including but not limited to issues of medical causation, compensability of the claim, or issues arising out of R.S. 23:1121, 1124, 1208, and 1226,~~ the employer or payor who has been notified of the claim, shall do all of the following:

(1) Prepare a "Notice of Payment, Modification, Suspension, Termination, or Controversion of Compensation ~~and/or or~~ Medical Benefits" on a LWC-WC 1002 form or such other form as may be promulgated by the assistant secretary pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

(2) Send the notice of the initial indemnity payment required by Paragraph (1) of this Subsection to the injured employee ~~on the same day as~~ no later than ten business days after the first payment of compensation is made by the payor after the payor has received notice of the claim from the employer.

(3) Send a copy of the notice of the initial payment of indemnity required by Paragraph (1) of this Subsection to the office ~~within ten days from the~~ on the same date the original notice was sent to the injured employee ~~or by facsimile to the injured employee's representative.~~

B. The form of the "Notice of Payment, Modification, Suspension, Termination, or Controversion of Compensation and/or Medical Benefits" shall be promulgated by the office Upon any modification, suspension, termination, or controversion of compensation or medical benefits for any reason, including but not limited to issues of medical causation, compensability of the claim, or issues arising out of R.S. 23:1121, 1124, 1208, or 1226, the employer or payor shall do all of the following:

(1) Prepare a "Notice of Payment, Modification, Suspension, Termination, or Controversion of Compensation or Medical Benefits" on a LWC-WC 1002 form or such other form as may be promulgated by the assistant secretary pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

(2) Send the notice required by Paragraph (1) of this Subsection to the injured employee within three business days after the effective date of the modification, suspension, termination, or controversion.

(3) Send a copy of the notice required by Paragraph (1) of this Subsection to the office on the same date the original notice was sent to the employee.

D.(1) Any notice required to be sent to the injured employee pursuant to this Section shall be sent by certified mail or commercial carrier to the address at which the employee is receiving payment of indemnity benefits, by electronic mail to the employee's electronic mail address on file with the employer or payor or by hand delivery to the employee.

(2) For purposes of receiving notice required by this Section, the employee shall provide a mailing address and an electronic mail address upon request from the employer or payor.

(3) If the injured employee is represented by an attorney, the notice shall also be ~~provided~~ sent to the employee's representative attorney by facsimile, certified mail, commercial carrier, electronic mail, or hand delivery. Proof that the notice was sent to the employee's representative ~~by facsimile as required by this Paragraph~~ shall be prima facie evidence of compliance with Subsection A of this Section.

E. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to questions of medical necessity as provided by R.S. 23:1203.1, or disputes concerning the amount of reimbursement pursuant to R.S. 23:1034.2.

G.(1) If the employer or the payor provides the benefit that the employee claims is due, including any arrearage, on the returned form or letter of amicable demand within ~~seven ten~~ business days of receipt of the employee's demand, the employer or payor shall not be subject to any claim for any penalties or attorney fees arising from the disputed payment, modification, suspension, termination, or controversion.

(2) If the employer or payor does not provide the benefit that the employee claims is due, the employee may file a disputed claim for benefit provided it is filed within the prescriptive period established under R.S. 23:1209. If the prescription date of the claim occurs within the ~~seven-day ten-day~~ waiting period, the employee will be allowed to file a disputed claim without waiting the ~~seven ten~~ business days as provided in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection. However, the employer or payor shall still be allowed ~~seven ten~~ business days to provide the benefit that the employee claims is due, and if the employer does provide the benefit, the disputed claim will be moot regarding the issues arising out of the payment, suspension, modification, termination, or controversion of benefits. All other issues alleged in the disputed claim will be unaffected by the payment.

H. The employer or the payor who wishes to have a preliminary determination hearing shall request the hearing in his answer to the disputed claim arising from the notice of initial payment or any subsequent modification, suspension, termination, or notice of controversion. In cases where a disputed claim is already pending when an issue arises from a subsequent notice of payment, modification, suspension, termination, or controversion of benefits, such request shall be made in an amended pleading filed within ~~fifteen ten business~~ days of the expiration of the ~~seven-day ten-day~~ period set forth in Paragraph (G)(1) of this Section.

I.(1) Preliminary determinations as provided for in this Section are favored under the law and an employer or payor who has not complied with the requirements set forth in either Subsection A through E of this Section or has not initially accepted the claim as compensable, subject to further investigation and subsequent controversion or Subsection B of this Section, and who has provided notice as required by Subsection D of this Section, shall ~~not~~ be entitled to a preliminary determination. An employer or payor who is not entitled to a preliminary determination or who is so entitled but fails to request a preliminary determination may be subject to penalties and attorney fees pursuant to R.S. 23:1201 at a trial on the merits or hearing held pursuant to Paragraph (K)(8) of this Section.

(2) If disputed by the parties, upon a rule to show cause held prior to the preliminary determination or any hearing held pursuant to this Section, the workers' compensation judge shall determine whether the employer is in compliance. An employee who objects to a request for a preliminary determination shall file a motion to strike the request within ten business days of receiving the documentation required to be produced by the employer or payor pursuant to Paragraph J(4) of this Section. The motion shall state the factual and legal bases for the objection, and shall be considered by the workers' compensation judge by a rule to show cause prior to any preliminary determination hearing. Failure to file the motion to strike within the prescribed time period shall be deemed a waiver of any objection to the preliminary determination hearing.

J. * * *

(2) The testimony of physicians may be introduced by certified records or deposition. The parties may agree to allow uncertified medical records and physician reports to be introduced into evidence. Witnesses may testify at the hearing or, if agreed on by the parties, may offer testimony by introduction of a deposition.

(3) The preliminary determination hearing shall be held no later than ninety days from the scheduling conference. However, upon a showing of good cause, one extension of an additional thirty days is permitted upon approval by the workers' compensation judge. The workers' compensation judge shall issue a preliminary determination no later than ~~thirty fifteen~~ days after the hearing.

(4) Any employer or payor requesting a preliminary determination hearing shall produce all documentation relied on by the employer or payor in calculating, modifying, suspending, terminating, or controverting the employee's benefits. These documents shall be disclosed to the employee or the employee's representative within ten ~~business~~ days of the request for the preliminary determination hearing.

K.(1) The employer or payor shall, within ten ~~calendar business~~ days of the mailing of the ~~preliminary~~ determination from the workers' compensation judge, do either of the following:

(2) Any employer or payor who accepts and complies with the workers' compensation judge's determination within ten ~~calendar business~~ days, shall not be subject to any penalty or attorney fees arising out of the original notice which was the subject of the preliminary hearing.

Section 3. R.S. 23:1021(introductory paragraph), 1123, 1221(introductory paragraph), (1)(d), and (3)(d)(introductory paragraph) and (ii) are hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 23:1221(3)(a)(iii) is hereby enacted to read as follows:
§1021. Terms defined

As used in this Chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following terms ~~shall have been given the meaning~~ meanings ascribed to them ~~in this Section:~~

(16)(a) "Maximum Medical Improvement" or "MMI" means the employee's condition is unlikely to improve substantially with or without medical treatment.

(b) The fact that the employee requires or receives medical treatment to maintain his condition or to manage chronic pain shall not prevent a finding of maximum medical improvement.

§1123. Disputes as to condition or capacity to work; ~~additional~~ Additional medical opinion regarding an examination under supervision of the ~~assistant~~ secretary

If any dispute arises as to the condition of the employee, including but not limited to the cause of the condition, whether the employee is at maximum medical improvement, or the employee's capacity to work, the assistant secretary, upon application of any party, shall order an additional medical opinion regarding an examination of the employee to be made by a medical practitioner selected and appointed by the assistant secretary. The medical examiner shall report his conclusions from the examination to the assistant secretary and to the parties and ~~such the~~ report shall be prima facie evidence of the facts ~~therein~~ stated in any subsequent proceedings under pursuant to this Chapter.

§1221. Temporary total disability; permanent total disability; supplemental earnings benefits; permanent partial disability; schedule of payments

Compensation shall be paid ~~under pursuant to~~ this Chapter in accordance with the following schedule of payments:

(1) Temporary total.

(d) An award of benefits based on temporary total disability shall cease when the physical condition of the employee has resolved itself to the point that a reasonably reliable determination of the extent of disability of the employee may be made and the employee's physical condition has improved to the point that continued, regular treatment by a physician is not required of maximum medical improvement (MMI). However, in no event shall benefits based on temporary total disability exceed a maximum of two hundred eight weeks. Termination of temporary total disability benefits pursuant to this Paragraph shall not preclude an award of benefits pursuant to Paragraphs (2), (3), or (4) of this Section.

(3) Supplemental earnings benefits.

(a) * * *

(iii) An employee who has exhausted eligibility for temporary total disability benefits pursuant to Subparagraph (1)(d) of this Section shall be entitled to supplemental earnings benefits in the manner provided in this Section.

(d) The right to supplemental earnings benefits pursuant to this Paragraph shall in no event exceed a maximum of five hundred twenty four hundred sixteen weeks, but shall terminate:

(ii) After receipt of a maximum of five hundred twenty four hundred sixteen weeks of benefits, provided that for any week during which the employee is paid any compensation under this Paragraph, the employer shall be entitled to a reduction of one full week of compensation against the maximum number of weeks for which compensation is payable under this Paragraph; however, for any week during which the employee is paid no supplemental earnings benefits, the employer shall not be entitled to a reduction against the maximum number of weeks payable under this Paragraph; or

On page 10, after line 25, add the following: "§1749.28. Dispute resolution for BEAD Program-funded projects

A. This Section applies solely to broadband construction projects funded pursuant to the federal Broadband Equity, Access, and Deployment, or BEAD, Program as administered by the office of broadband, development and connectivity, which will be referred to in this Section as the office, pursuant to National Telecommunications and Information Administration of the United States Department of Commerce, NTIA, requirements.

B.(1) For the projects outlined in Subsection A of this Section, a stop-work order issued solely for alleged marking noncompliance or excavation zone disputes shall not take immediate effect unless the issuing authority makes a written determination that an imminent threat to life or public safety exists.

(2) Except as outlined in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, enforcement of a stop-work order shall be postponed for a four-hour review period during which construction may continue. A rapid dispute resolution panel, consisting of representatives of the office, the underground facility operator, the governing authority of the impacted area, and the excavating contractor, shall review relevant documentation and attempt resolution. If no resolution is reached, the office or its designated neutral third party shall issue an independent field determination that is binding for purposes of the stop-work order.

C. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to modify federal BEAD Program obligations."

(2) After compliance with the requirements of Article VII, Section 9(B) of the Constitution of Louisiana relative to the Bond

Security and Redemption Fund, and after a sufficient amount is allocated from that fund to pay all of the obligations secured by the full faith and credit of the state which become due and payable within any fiscal year, the treasurer shall pay into the fund, an amount equal to the monies received by the state treasury pursuant to this Chapter. The monies in this fund shall be used solely as provided in this Section and only in the amount appropriated by the legislature. All unexpended and unencumbered monies remaining in this fund at the end of the fiscal year shall remain in the fund. The monies in the fund shall be invested by the state treasurer in the same manner as monies in the state general fund and all returns of such investment shall be deposited to the fund. At the request of the Natural Resources Trust Authority, the state treasurer may invest monies in the fund, or any portion thereof, ~~in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 33:2955, including the use of the Louisiana Asset Management Pool, in a separate portfolio~~ and any interest earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund. The funds received shall be placed in the special trust fund in the custody of the state treasurer to be used only in accordance with this Chapter and shall not be placed in the general fund. The funds provided to the secretary pursuant to this Section shall at all times be and remain the property of the secretary. The funds shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this Chapter and for no other governmental purposes, nor shall any branch of government be allowed to borrow any portion of the funds. It is the intent of the legislature that this fund and its increments shall remain intact and inviolate."

AMENDMENT NO. 11

On page 17, between lines 13 and 14, insert the following:
 "$2050.22. Judicial review; appeal; stays; intervention"

C. A third person having an interest in the matter subject to review has the right to intervene as a party in an action commenced pursuant to R.S. 30:2050.21 when the intervention is unlikely to unduly broaden the issues or to unduly impede the resolution of the action. A "third person having an interest" with the right to intervene under this Section shall include but not be limited to any applicant, permittee, or party to the underlying administrative process, action, or proceeding that resulted in the issuance of a final permit action, final enforcement action, or a declaratory ruling that is the subject of the petition for review. For avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Subsection shall be given prospective and retroactive application.

Section 3.(A) The precincts referenced in Section 2 of this Act are those contained in the file named "2026 Precinct Shapefiles (1-27-2026)" available on the website of the Legislature of Louisiana on the effective date of this Section. The 2026 Precinct Shapefiles are based upon those Voting Districts (VTDs) contained in the 2020 Census Redistricting TIGER/Line Shapefiles for the State of Louisiana as those files have been modified and validated through the data verification program of the Louisiana Senate and the Louisiana House of Representatives to represent precinct changes submitted through January 27, 2026, to the Legislature of Louisiana by parish governing authorities pursuant to the provisions of R.S. 18:532 and 532.1.

(B) When a precinct referenced in Section 2 of this Act has been subdivided by action of the parish governing authority on a nongeographic basis or subdivided by action of the parish governing authority on a geographic basis in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 18:532.1, the enumeration in Section 2 of this Act of the general precinct designation shall include all nongeographic and all geographic subdivisions thereof, however such subdivisions may be designated.

(C) The territorial limits of the districts as provided in Section 2 of this Act shall continue in effect until changed by law regardless of any subsequent change made to the precincts by the parish governing authority.

Section 4. The provisions of Section 2 of this Act shall not reduce the term of office of any person holding any position or office on the effective date of this Section for which the appointment or election is based upon a Senate district as composed pursuant to R.S. 24:35.1. Any position or office that is filled by appointment or election based upon a Senate district and that is to be filled after the effective date of this Section, shall be appointed or elected based upon the district as it is described in Section 2 of this Act.

Section 5. The provisions of Section 1 shall become effective on January 1, 2027.

Section 6. This provisions of this Section and Sections 2, 3, 4, and 5 of this Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval."
