STATE SENATOR FIELDS TO TOUR HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE CAMPUSES AFFECTED BY HURRICANE LAURA

State Senator Cleo Fields is touring high school and college campuses affected by Hurricane Laura in Southwest Louisiana tomorrow, September 4, 2020. The senator will visit several sites throughout the day to survey damage and meet with local education leaders and administrators.

“My heart goes out to the communities across Louisiana that experienced significant damage from this powerful storm,” said Senator Fields. “It is vital that we work to ensure people have the support they need as they return to, and re-build, their homes, businesses, and schools. We must come together to do what we can for the people in need across our state.”

Senator Fields will visit the following campuses:

- SOWELA Technical Community College (Lake Charles, La)
- McNeese University (Lake Charles, La)
- LaGrange High School (Lake Charles, La)
- Barbe High School (Lake Charles, La)
- Sulphur High School (Sulphur, La)
- Buckeye High School (DeVilleville, La)
