Sen. Barrow to host Virtual Community Meeting

Sen. Regina Barrow is inviting everyone in Senate District 15 to participate in a virtual conference to learn about and discuss issues affecting residents of the district.

The conference is set for 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 6. Sen. Barrow has invited numerous state and local government officials to provide information and to answer questions.

A wide range of topics is set for discussion, including COVID-19 updates and vaccine info, housing, employment opportunities, unemployment assistance, family assistance and local government issues.

Invited participants are the offices of Gov. John Bel Edwards, Mayor President Sharon Weston Broome, Baker Mayor Darnell Waites, Zachary Mayor David Amrhein, the Louisiana Department of Children and Family Services, the Louisiana Workforce Commission, the Louisiana Housing Corporation, and the Louisiana Department of Health.

For information about participating in the virtual conference, contact Sen. Barrow's office at (225) 359-9400 or by email at barrowr@legis.la.gov.
