"§1124.4. Penalties

A. If a person fails to timely file a financial statement as required by R.S. 42:1124.2, or 1124.3, or a candidate fails to timely file a financial statement as required by R.S. 18:1495.7, or such person or candidate omits any required information, or the board has reason to believe information provided is inaccurate, the board shall notify him of such failure, omission, or inaccuracy by sending him by certified mail a notice of delinquency immediately upon discovery of the failure, omission, or inaccuracy.

B. Such notice shall inform him that the financial statement must be filed or that the information must be disclosed or accurately disclosed, or that a written answer contesting the allegation in the notice of such a failure, omission or an inaccuracy must be deposited in the mail no later than fourteen business days after receipt of the notice of delinquency.

C. The person or candidate shall be informed that further failure to file the statement, disclose the information, correct the inaccuracy, or contest the allegation in writing in the time required shall result in the imposition of penalties as provided for in Subsection C of this Section.

B.1. A person who fails to file a financial statement shall be assessed the penalty provided for in Subsection C of this Section until the statement is filed unless waived by the board as authorized in R.S. 42:1124.3.

C. If the person provides the omitted information or corrects the inaccurate information prior to the deadline contained in the notice of delinquency, no penalties shall be assessed against the person. Further, no penalties shall be assessed if an answer contesting the allegations is filed until a determination is made by the board in response to the contest that results in the imposition of penalties.

C.1. A failure to provide the omitted information, correct the inaccurate information, or file a written answer prior to the deadline contained in the notice of delinquency, or upon a finding by the board after a written answer that the information is still omitted or inaccurate, shall subject the person to the assessment of the penalty provided for in Subsection C of this Section for each day until such omitted information, corrected information, or written answer is filed.

C. Penalties shall be assessed as follows:

(1) Five hundred dollars per day for persons whose financial statements are required by R.S. 42:1124.

(2) One hundred dollars per day for persons whose financial statements are required by R.S. 42:1124.2.

(3) Fifty dollars per day for persons whose statements are required by R.S. 42:1124.3.

(4) The penalties to be assessed candidates shall be assessed according to which financial statement the candidate is required to file as provided in R.S. 18:1495.7.

D. (1)(a) A finding by the board after the notice provided for in Paragraph (A)(1) of this Section that a person or candidate has willfully or knowingly failed to file a statement, willfully and knowingly failed to timely file a statement, willfully and knowingly omitted information from a statement, or has willfully and knowingly provided inaccurate information in a statement, shall subject such person or candidate to prosecution for a misdemeanor.

(b)(1) Upon first conviction thereof, such person or candidate shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars.

(b)(2) Upon a second or subsequent convictions thereof, the person or candidate shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars or imprisoned in parish prison for not more than six months, or both.

(2) Any person prosecuted under this Subsection shall have a right to be tried before a jury of six persons, all of whom shall concur to render a verdict.

(3) To make such a finding, the board shall provide the person or candidate an opportunity for a hearing.

(4) Upon the making of such a finding the board shall forward its findings to the district attorney in the parish in which the violation occurred for action.

E. (1) The Board of Ethics shall post on its web site on the Internet a list of all persons or candidates who have failed to file, or failed to timely file, or who have failed to provide omitted information or failed to provide accurate information as required by this Section.

(2)(a) No person or candidate shall be included on the list unless he fails to file, provide omitted information, or provide accurate information by the deadline nor shall he be included if he has filed an answer contesting the allegations included in the notice of delinquency.

(b) A person shall be removed from the list within two business days after filing or accurately disclosing the required information.

AMENDMENT NO. 10

AMENDMENT NO. 11
On page 17, between lines 19 and 20, insert the following:

A.1. If a person fails to timely file a financial statement as required by R.S. 42:1124.2, or 1124.3, or a candidate fails to timely file a financial statement as required by R.S. 18:1495.7, or such person or candidate omits any required information, or the board has reason to believe information provided is inaccurate, the board shall notify him of such failure, omission, or inaccuracy by sending him by certified mail a notice of delinquency immediately upon discovery of the failure, omission, or inaccuracy.

B.1. Such notice shall inform him that the financial statement must be filed or that the information must be disclosed or accurately disclosed, or that a written answer contesting the allegation in the notice of such a failure, omission or an inaccuracy must be deposited in the mail no later than fourteen business days after receipt of the notice of delinquency.

C. The person or candidate shall be informed that further failure to file the statement, disclose the information, correct the inaccuracy, or contest the allegation in writing in the time required shall result in the imposition of penalties as provided for in Subsection C of this Section.

B.1. A person who fails to file a financial statement shall be assessed the penalty provided for in Subsection C of this Section until the statement is filed unless waived by the board as authorized in R.S. 42:1124.3.

C. If the person provides the omitted information or corrects the inaccurate information prior to the deadline contained in the notice of delinquency, no penalties shall be assessed against the person. Further, no penalties shall be assessed if an answer contesting the allegations is filed until a determination is made by the board in response to the contest that results in the imposition of penalties.

C.1. A failure to provide the omitted information, correct the inaccurate information, or file a written answer prior to the deadline contained in the notice of delinquency, or upon a finding by the board after a written answer that the information is still omitted or inaccurate, shall subject the person to the assessment of the penalty provided for in Subsection C of this Section for each day until such omitted information, corrected information, or written answer is filed.

C. Penalties shall be assessed as follows:

(1) Five hundred dollars per day for persons whose financial statements are required by R.S. 42:1124.

(2) One hundred dollars per day for persons whose financial statements are required by R.S. 42:1124.2.

(3) Fifty dollars per day for persons whose statements are required by R.S. 42:1124.3.

(4) The penalties to be assessed candidates shall be assessed according to which financial statement the candidate is required to file as provided in R.S. 18:1495.7.

D. (1)(a) A finding by the board after the notice provided for in Paragraph (A)(1) of this Section that a person or candidate has willfully or knowingly failed to file a statement, willfully and knowingly failed to timely file a statement, willfully and knowingly omitted information from a statement, or has willfully and knowingly provided inaccurate information in a statement, shall subject such person or candidate to prosecution for a misdemeanor.

(b)(1) Upon first conviction thereof, such person or candidate shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars.

(b)(2) Upon a second or subsequent convictions thereof, the person or candidate shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars or imprisoned in parish prison for not more than six months, or both.

(2) Any person prosecuted under this Subsection shall have a right to be tried before a jury of six persons, all of whom shall concur to render a verdict.

(3) To make such a finding, the board shall provide the person or candidate an opportunity for a hearing.

(4) Upon the making of such a finding the board shall forward its findings to the district attorney in the parish in which the violation occurred for action.

E. (1) The Board of Ethics shall post on its web site on the Internet a list of all persons or candidates who have failed to file, or failed to timely file, or who have failed to provide omitted information or failed to provide accurate information as required by this Section.

(2)(a) No person or candidate shall be included on the list unless he fails to file, provide omitted information, or provide accurate information by the deadline nor shall he be included if he has filed an answer contesting the allegations included in the notice of delinquency.

(b) A person shall be removed from the list within two business days after filing or accurately disclosing the required information.
