Fishing. Oyster harvesting shall be limited to "shall be prohibited except by special permit issued by the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries. Oyster harvesting shall be limited to using tongs; a single dredge; a single dredge with mechanical assist and a flat bar length of no more than thirty-six inches is allowed.

(2) No person shall be issued a permit for the commercial taking of oysters on Calcasieu Lake unless that person provides proof that he commercially harvested oysters from Calcasieu Lake through trip ticket landings in three of the following four years: 2007, 2008, 2009, and 2010.

B. All vessels used for the commercial harvest of oysters on Calcasieu Lake must be self-propelled. "Self-propelled" means when used in this Section, that the vessel shall travel under its own power to its harvest area and when loaded with oysters, shall travel under its own power to the place where the oysters are unloaded.

C. The commission shall fix the open season for oyster harvest in Calcasieu Lake, which shall begin on any date between October fifteenth and November first and, for calendar years 2007 through 2010, shall end on a date set after consideration of recommendations by the Louisiana Oyster Task Force. After calendar year 2010, the season shall end on April thirtieth. However, in consultation with the Calcasieu Lake Oyster Task Force, the commission may open or close the season as the commission may determine to be in the best interest of the oyster fishery in Calcasieu Lake.

D. Harvest limits shall be set twenty-five sacks of oysters per permittee per day, provided that the sacks may be based on the use of a licensed vessel based on technical and biological data and after consideration of recommendations by the Louisiana Calcasieu Lake Oyster Task Force. In addition, recreational fishermen may harvest oysters as provided in R.S. 56:424(C). Harvest limits for recreational fishermen shall be one sack per person per permit per day, with "sack" defined as "a bag or container for carrying forty pounds of oysters.

E. Any violation of the provisions of this Section shall be considered a Class four violation subject to the penalties contained in R.S. 56:424.5.

D. (1) Violation of any provision of this Section or of any Wildlife and Fisheries Commission regulation pertaining to taking, possessing, recording or reporting of landings or selling oysters from Calcasieu Lake shall constitute a Class 4 violation.

(2) Any person who participates in the fishery while barred from obtaining such permit for the remainder of the period for which it was issued plus one year, during which time the offender shall be barred from participating in any oyster fishing activity on Calcasieu Lake.

(b) For a second offense, the offender shall forfeit any Calcasieu Lake oyster permit issued to him and shall be barred from obtaining a Calcasieu Lake oyster permit for the remainder of the period for which it was issued plus two years, during which time the offender shall be barred from participating in any oyster fishing activity on Calcasieu Lake.

(c) For a third offense, the offender shall forfeit any Calcasieu Lake oyster permit issued to him and shall be permanently barred from obtaining a Calcasieu Lake oyster permit and from participating in any oyster fishing activity on Calcasieu Lake.

(2) Any person who participates in the fishery while barred shall be penalized under the provisions of a Class 7-B violation.

E. The special permit provided for in this Section shall be transferable from one person to another for a period of three years from August 15, 2011, or until a transfer system is developed by the commission. An exception to the prohibition on transfer may be granted by the commission, in its sole discretion, in the case of proven hardship of the permittee, and only if the transfer is to the permittee’s spouse, parent/legal guardian, or child/legal dependent of the permittee.

F. (1) The commission shall adopt rules and regulations, in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, for the season, take, harvest, possession, reporting, sale, transfer of special permits, apprenticeship, appeals, individual transfer quotas, and entry of commercial fishermen into the commercial oyster fishery in Calcasieu Lake.

(2) The commission shall, within three years from August 15, 2011, establish by rules adopted in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act a system for the transfer of special permits. Such rules shall provide that there shall be no financial gain realized by the transferor of such transfer.

3. The provisions of Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section shall expire and be void after adoption by the commission of all of the rules and regulations required by this Subsection.
