D. Beginning Farmer and Fisherman Income Tax Credits.

(1)(a) Purchases. An income tax credit of up to five percent of the purchase price shall be available to an established Louisiana farmer who sells agricultural assets to a qualified beginning farmer and to an established Louisiana commercial fisherman who sells fishing assets to a qualified beginning fisherman. The credit is limited to ten thousand dollars. Each established Louisiana farmer and each established Louisiana commercial fisherman may earn only one Beginning Farmer and Fisherman Income Tax Credit during their lifetime. Taxpayers who have earned the credit in Subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph are not eligible to earn this credit. The credit is earned in the tax year in which the qualified beginning farmer or fisherman first uses the assets in their farming or fishing business. To be eligible to earn the credit, the established Louisiana farmer or commercial fisherman and the qualified beginning farmer or fisherman shall submit a joint application to the Department of Revenue on a form prescribed by the secretary. For purposes of this Subsection, both spouses shall be considered one taxpayer.

(b) Leases and share agreements. An income tax credit of up to ten percent of the annual lease price or value of the share agreement shall be available to the established Louisiana farmer who enters into a lease or share agreement for the use of agricultural assets with a qualified beginning farmer and to the established Louisiana commercial fisherman who enters into a lease or share agreement for the use of fishing assets with a qualified beginning fisherman. The qualified beginning farmer or fisherman shall earn a credit equal to the credit earned by the established Louisiana farmer or commercial fisherman. The credit is limited to one thousand dollars per tax year and may be earned for a maximum of five tax years. Each taxpayer who earns the credit under this Subparagraph shall be limited to a five thousand dollar lifetime cap of Beginning Farmer and Fisherman Income Tax Credits. Taxpayers who have earned the credit in Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph are not eligible to earn this credit. The credit may be earned for up to five tax years and is earned in each tax year in which the qualified beginning farmer or fisherman first uses the assets in their farming or fishing business. To be eligible to earn the credit, the established Louisiana farmer or commercial fisherman and the qualified beginning farmer or fisherman shall submit a joint application to the Department of Revenue on a form prescribed by the secretary.
