AMENDMENT NO. 4
On page 1, after line 13, insert the following:

"§155. Commission authority, fines, suspensions, revocations, forfeitures and disciplinary actions

A. The commission may impose upon any licensee listed in R.S. 4:143(1) a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars and may suspend a licensee indefinitely, or both. Any commission action taken herein shall be consistent with the provisions of this Part.

B. The commission may impose upon any licensee as defined in R.S. 4:143(1) a fine not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars and may suspend a license indefinitely, or both. Any commission action taken herein shall be consistent with the provisions of this Part.

§158. License

A. On or before the fifteenth of April of each year and on or before the fifteenth of August of each year any person possessing the qualifications prescribed in this Part may apply to the commission for a one-year license to conduct race meetings. On or before the first of May and the first of September of each year, after receipt of the applications the commission shall convene to consider the refusal or granting of the permits or licenses applied for. An application filed prior to any one of the two deadlines shall request dates for racing to commence not sooner than four months from said deadlines. The permits or licenses granted shall set forth the name of the licensee, the location of the race track, the duration of the race meeting, and the kind of racing desired to be conducted, and shall recite the receipt by the commission of the license fee provided for in this Part. The license is not transferable nor does it apply to any place, track, or enclosure except the one specified in the license. Should the commission, after due proceedings had in conformity with this Part, suspend or revoke an association's license or terminate the racing privileges granted to an association, said association may within ten days of the notification of the commission's decision take a suspensive appeal to the district court having jurisdiction over the association's track. Such appeals shall be filed in the district court in the same manner as original suits are instituted therein. The appeals should be tried de novo. Either party may amend and supplement his pleadings and additional witnesses may be called and heard.

Within ten calendar days of the signing of the judgment by the district court in any such appeal case, the commission or the applicant for a license or licensee, as the case may be, may suspensively appeal the judgment to the appellate court of proper jurisdiction. These appeals shall be perfected in the manner provided for in civil cases and shall be suspensive or devolutive in the discretion of the court.

All proceedings in the district and appellate courts arising under this Part are civil in nature and shall be heard summarily by the court, without a jury, shall take precedence over other civil cases, and shall be tried in chambers or in open court, and in or out of term.

B. The provisions of this Part to the contrary, notwithstanding, the commission may contract with any licensee for a permit to operate a track for a period of ten years. Such permit shall conform to all the requirements as set out in Subsection (A) of this section; however, any licensee applying for a ten-year license under this section shall also be required to expend a minimum amount of $100,000.00 per year or $1,000,000.00 during said ten-year period for the purpose of repairs and improvements to the track and its facilities, and sum to be expended during said ten-year period.

The commission may approve an application for racing dates for a period not more than one year, when a contract has been entered into in accordance with this section.

§158.1. Written report: required

A. On January 1, 2015, and on January first of each year thereafter, a licensee who is licensed to conduct races shall submit to the commission a written report that shall include the following information:

1. The plan of operation for each fiscal year. The plan of operation shall include but not be limited to customer service, marketing and promotions relative to horse racing, capital improvement, and facility maintenance. "Facility maintenance" shall include but not be limited to track surface, barns, grand stands, and paddocks.

2. A summary of the implementation and status of the prior year's plan.

B. The commission may adopt rules in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act to implement the provisions of this section, including, as appropriate, standard forms to be used for the annual report and plan of operation.

§160. Grounds for refusal, suspension, denial, or termination of racing privileges to an association

The commission may refuse, suspend, or withdraw licenses, permits and privileges granted by it or terminate racing privileges, for just cause. Those things constituting just cause are:

(7) Failure to meet criteria for licensing as provided in R.S. 4:159;

(8) Failure to maintain suitable racing surfaces as determined by the commission;

(9) Failure or inability to conduct racing in a manner that is in the best interest of racing as determined by the commission;

(10) Failure to provide responses to inquiries made by the commission regarding the status or progress of any matter related to racing.

§225. Commission authority, fines, suspensions, revocations, forfeitures and disciplinary actions

A. The commission may impose upon any licensee listed in R.S. 4:169 a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars and may suspend a licensee indefinitely, or both. Any commission action taken herein shall be consistent with the provisions of this Part.

B. The commission may impose any licensed association as defined in R.S. 4:143(1) a fine not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars and may suspend a license indefinitely, or both. Any commission action taken herein shall be consistent with the provisions of this Part.

On motion of Senator Martiny, the committee amendment was adopted. The amended bill was read by title, ordered engrossed and passed to a third reading.
