§1311. Sheriff, constables, and deputies; powers of peace officers; exemption from liability
A. The sheriff for the parish of Orleans and the constables of the First and Second City Courts of New Orleans and their deputies, are hereby granted the powers of peace officers when carrying out the duties of the court, and are authorized to require incarceration of the subject involved in any of the city, parish or state prisons, precinct stations, or houses of detention in the parish of Orleans. They shall be exempt from liability for their actions in the exercise of this power in the same manner and fashion as liability is excluded generally for peace officers of this state and political subdivisions.
B. The constable of the First City Court of New Orleans and his deputies are hereby granted the powers of peace officers when acting under the discretion and control of the constable and when carrying out the duties of the court, and are authorized to require incarceration of the subject involved in any of the city, parish or state prisons, precinct stations, or houses of detention in the parish of Orleans. They shall be exempt from liability for their actions in the exercise of this power in the same manner and fashion as liability is excluded generally for peace officers of this state and political subdivisions.

§2154. Powers of clerks and constables; constable of First City Court of New Orleans
A. In civil matters, the clerks and constables of the city courts of New Orleans have the same powers and duties as provided by the applicable provisions of law for clerks and marshals of city courts generally.
B. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the constable of the First City Court of New Orleans and his deputies, under the discretion and control of the constable, shall have the same power to make arrests, in and upon the property within the jurisdiction of the constable’s office and shall have all the powers of sheriffs as a peace officer in all places and on all premises under the jurisdiction and control of the constable, as well as to execute the mandates of the court.
(2) Any person arrested by a deputy of the constable shall be forthwith surrendered or delivered to the sheriff of the parish of Orleans. However, this shall in no way deprive the New Orleans city police or the sheriff of the parish of Orleans of a deputy thereof from making arrests.
(3) The constable shall make rules and regulations for the conduct, management, and control of his deputies and shall from time to time enlarge, modify, or change such rules and regulations in his discretion.

A. The sheriff for the parish of Orleans and the constables of the First and Second City Courts of New Orleans and their deputies, are hereby granted the powers of peace officers when carrying out the duties of the court, and are authorized to require incarceration of the subject involved in any of the city, parish or state prisons, precinct stations, or houses of detention in the parish of Orleans. They shall be exempt from liability for their actions in the exercise of this power in the same manner and fashion as liability is excluded generally for peace officers of this state and political subdivisions.
B. The constable of the First City Court of New Orleans and his deputies are hereby granted the powers of peace officers when acting under the discretion and control of the constable and when carrying out the duties of the court, and are authorized to require incarceration of the subject involved in any of the city, parish or state prisons, precinct stations, or houses of detention in the parish of Orleans. They shall be exempt from liability for their actions in the exercise of this power in the same manner and fashion as liability is excluded generally for peace officers of this state and political subdivisions.
