A. When the mental or physical condition of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician or to produce for examination the person in his custody or legal control, except as provided by law. In addition, the court may order the party to submit to an examination by a vocational rehabilitation expert or a licensed clinical psychologist who is not a physician, provided the party has given notice of intention to use such an expert. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made. The examination shall not be referred to as an "independent" examination in the presence of a jury.
B. Regardless of the number of defendants, a plaintiff shall not be ordered to submit to multiple examinations by multiple physicians within the same field of specialty.
C. A minor subject to examination under the provisions of this Article shall have the right to have a parent, or tutor or legal guardian, present during the examination. If such person cannot be present, the court shall order the examination to be videotaped.
The court shall consider the best interests of the minor and may impose conditions upon videotaping, including that it be done in a manner least harmful to the minor and without disclosure to the minor. The costs associated with the videotaping shall be paid by the party requiring the examination.
D. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph C, if a videotape made of an examination, the party requesting videotaping shall pay the costs associated with such videotaping.

delete lines 9 through 23 and insert the following: "Whenever there is a question regarding whether an offender, convicted or adjudicated in a Louisiana state court of an offense requiring registration and notification pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter, as a fifteen-year, a twenty-five-year, or a lifetime registrant, the Sexual Predator Apprehension Team of the Department of Justice shall have the authority to make determinations regarding the appropriate time period of registration in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter. When such a determination is made by the Sexual Predator Apprehension Team of the Department of Justice, the determination shall be noted in the offender’s profile on the State Sex Offender and Child Predator Registry. These determinations shall be binding for purposes of enforcement of the registration and notification provisions of this Chapter unless overturned by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to R.S. 15:544.1 when a petition is filed within one hundred eighty days of the date of the written notice. Failure to timely file a petition for such relief pursuant to the provisions of this Subsection shall constitute a waiver by the offender and shall make
