D. When such information is relevant and necessary to the performance of their respective duties and enhances services to the child or his family, the court may authorize the release of records, reports, or certain information contained therein, limited to the specific purpose for which the court authorizes release, to appropriate representatives who represent any of the following when they are providing services to the child whose records are disclosed during the pendency of the matter about which the records are disclosed:

9. A trauma and assessment center;
10. Other child-serving agencies or programs.

E. (1) For good cause when the information is material and necessary to a specific investigation or proceeding, the court may order the release of individual records and reports, or certain information contained therein, to a petitioner, limited to the specific purpose for which the court authorizes release.

(2) The petition must:

(a) Be filed with the juvenile court and served on the juvenile and his attorney.
(b) State the reason for the request and the intended use of the information, including any intended redisclosure.
(c) State the names of all persons that will have access to the information.

(3) In ruling on the petition, the juvenile court shall consider the privacy of the juvenile, risk of harm to the juvenile, whether a compelling reason exists for releasing the information, and whether the release is necessary for the protection of a legitimate interest.

The court shall ensure the juvenile is afforded notice of the hearing; and shall not be disclosed except as expressly authorized by this Code. Any person authorized to review or receive confidential information shall preserve its confidentiality in the absence of express authorization for sharing with others unless a court order authorizes them to share with others.

(4) Certain information contained in the predisposition report to the court pursuant to Article 890, limited to those items described in Subparagraphs (A)(1) and (2) and Paragraph (D) of that Article.
H. The district attorney, law enforcement agency, or court may release to the public the following identifying information concerning an alleged or adjudicated delinquent child, provided the child was at least fourteen years old at the time of the delinquent act:

1. Name, age, and delinquent act for which the child is being charged whenever, in accordance with Article 813 or 820, the court has found probable cause that the child committed a crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) or a second or subsequent felony-grade offense.

2. The name, delinquent act, and disposition of a child who has been adjudicated delinquent for a crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B), for a second or subsequent felony grade offense, or for the distribution or possession with the intent to distribute a controlled dangerous substance as defined in R.S. 40:98 et seq. In order to assist in finding and taking into custody a child wanted for a felony-grade delinquent act involving an offense against the person or involving a dangerous weapon, law enforcement agencies may release to the public identifying information regarding the child if a court has issued an order for taking the child into custody pursuant to Article 813, or if probable cause that the child committed the alleged delinquent act has already been established pursuant to Article 820. Identifying information may include the child’s name, age, alleged delinquent act, physical description, and photograph.

1. In order to assist in finding and taking into custody a child wanted for a felony-grade delinquent act involving an offense against the person or involving a dangerous weapon, law enforcement agencies may release to the public identifying information regarding the child if a court has issued an order for taking the child into custody pursuant to Article 820. Identifying information may include the child’s name, age, alleged delinquent act, physical description, photograph, address, and, when appropriate, social security number and driver’s license number. Any violation of the confidentiality provisions of this Article shall be punishable as a constructive contempt of court pursuant to Article 1509(E).

J. Any violation of the confidentiality provisions of this Article shall be punishable as a constructive contempt of court pursuant to Article 1509(E).

K. Whenever a child escapes from a juvenile detention center, law enforcement agencies are hereby authorized to release to the public the child’s name, age, physical description, and photograph. Every person, other than the juvenile, parents of the juvenile, and attorney for the juvenile, to whom a juvenile record or information from a juvenile is disclosed pursuant to this Article shall execute a non-disclosure agreement that certifies the person is familiar with the confidentiality provisions of Article 820. Identifying information may include the child’s name, age, alleged delinquent act, physical description, and photograph.

L. Juvenile records or information from juvenile records disclosed pursuant to this Article shall be marked “UNX” on the face of each page of the record or information. The district attorney, law enforcement agency, or court may release to the public the following identifying information concerning delinquency adjudications for R.S. 14:82, 83.3, 83.4, 89, or 89.2 may be expunged and sealed at any time.

M. Records of juvenile criminal conduct shall not be made a part of any state or local criminal background check.

AMENDMENT NO. 11

"Art. 903. Judgment of disposition

*  *

B. The court shall enter into the record a written judgment of disposition specifying all of the following:

*  *

(7) An order of expungement to be made executory at the end of the disposition unless, at the end of the disposition, a person or agency files an objection using the form provided in Art. 925 on any of the following grounds:

(a) The adjudication was for murder, manslaughter, an offense requiring registration as a sex offender under R.S. 13:342; kidnapping; or armed robbery.

(b) The child has a criminal court felony conviction or a criminal court conviction for a misdemeanor involving a firearm against a person.

(c) The child has an outstanding indictment or bill of information for a felony charge or a charge of a misdemeanor involving a firearm against a person.

G(1) The court shall provide to the child, in plain language, the following information:

(a) Information regarding the rights and procedures of expungement and sealing of juvenile records.

(b) Information regarding expungement, including instructions to the child that when his records are expunged he is not required to disclose that he has a juvenile record.

(c) The expungement motion provided in Article 924.

(2) Failure of the court to inform the child of the right to petition for expungement shall not create a substantive right and shall not constitute grounds for a reversal of an adjudication of delinquency, grounds for a new trial, or grounds for an appeal.

AMENDMENT NO. 12
On page 7 delete lines 7 through 28 and on page 8, delete lines 1 through 16 and insert the following:

B. Records concerning conduct or conditions that resulted in a misdemeanor adjudication may be expunged only if two or more years have elapsed since the person satisfied the most recent judgment against him.

C. Records concerning conduct or conditions that resulted in a felony delinquency adjudication may be expunged and sealed only if all of the following circumstances exist:

1. The adjudication was for murder, manslaughter, any sexual crime, kidnapping, or armed robbery.

2. The person seeking expungement and sealing has no outstanding pending indictment or bill of information charging him.

D. Records concerning conduct or conditions that resulted in a misdemeanor or felony adjudication for R.S. 14:82, 83.3, 83.4, 89, or 89.2 may be expunged upon petition to the court and upon a showing that, during the time of the commission of the offense, the person seeking the expungement was a victim of trafficking of children for sexual purposes pursuant to R.S. 14:46.3(E) provided that the person has no outstanding indictment or bill of information charging him.

E. The adjudication was for murder, manslaughter, a sex offense requiring registration under R.S. 13:342; kidnapping, or armed robbery, the child may petition the court for an expungement of his juvenile record when the court has ceased to exercise jurisdiction in accordance with Article 313.

(4) The person seeking expungement and sealing has no outstanding pending indictment or bill of information charging him.

F. Records concerning conduct or conditions that resulted in a misdemeanor or felony adjudication for R.S. 14:82, 83.3, 83.4, 89, or 89.2 may be expunged upon petition to the court and upon a showing that, during the time of the commission of the offense, the person seeking the expungement was a victim of trafficking of children for sexual purposes pursuant to R.S. 14:46.3(E) provided that the person has no outstanding indictment or bill of information charging him.

(5) The person seeking expungement and sealing has no outstanding pending indictment or bill of information charging him.

S 315.27. Child support award

A. If a child support award is suspended pursuant to R.S. 9:315.22(F) and the obligor is released from incarceration after the child has reached the age of majority, the custodial party or the child may petition the court to establish an award of support for the period of incarceration. If the court establishes a child support award for the period of incarceration while the child is a minor, the Department of Children and Family Services may authorize a registered victim to submit a reentry statement and the court may consider the statement in determining the amount of time the child support order was suspended.

B. If a child support award is suspended pursuant to R.S. 9:311.1 and the obligor is released from incarceration after the child has reached the age of majority, the custodial party or the child may petition the court to establish an award of support for the period of suspension within twenty-four months of the obligor's release from incarceration. If the court establishes a child support award for the period of suspension, the amount shall be established using the child support guidelines. However, any continuation of a child support award extended pursuant to this Subsection shall not exceed the amount of time the child support order was suspended.

On motion of Senator Gary Smith, the committee amendment was adopted. The amended bill was read by title and referred to the Legislative Bureau.
