(ii) seizure disorders. Seizure disorders.
(vi) epilepsy. Epilepsy.
(vii) spasticity. Spasticity.
(viii) Cohn's disease. Cohn's disease.
(ix) muscular dystrophy. Muscular dystrophy.
(x) multiple sclerosis. Multiple sclerosis.
(xi) Any of the following conditions associated with autism spectrum disorder:
   (aa) Repetitive or self-stimulatory behavior of such severity that the physical health of the person with autism is jeopardized.
   (bb) Avoidance of others or inability to communicate of such severity that the physical health of the person with autism is jeopardized.
   (cc) Self-injuring behavior.
   (dd) Physically aggressive or destructive behavior.
   (e) No physician shall prescribe medical marijuana for treatment of any condition associated with autism spectrum disorder for a patient who is under the age of eighteen unless the physician complies with the provisions of this Section and consults with a pediatric subspecialist.
   (f) The United States Food and Drug Administration approves the use of medical marijuana in the same form provided for in this Part for any debilitating medical condition specifically identified in this Paragraph, that medical condition shall no longer be covered by the provisions of this Part.
   (g) If the United States Food and Drug Administration approves the use of medical marijuana in a form or derivative different than provided for in this Part for any debilitating medical condition specifically identified in this Paragraph, the disease state shall remain covered by the provisions of this Part. The patient shall first be treated by the approved form or derivative of medical marijuana through utilization of step therapy or fail first protocols. If, after use of the United States Food and Drug Administration approved form or derivative of medical marijuana, the physician determines that the preferred treatment required under step therapy or fail first protocol has been ineffective in the treatment of the patient's debilitating medical condition, he may prescribe the form of medical marijuana provided for in this Part for use by the patient as medically necessary.
