Section 1. R.S. 39:24.2 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§24.2. Incentive expenditure program annual report

A. The Department of Revenue shall perform an annual comprehensive return on investment analysis for all incentive expenditures, as defined by R.S. 39:2. This return on investment analysis shall be performed by the department regardless of which agency administers the incentive expenditure program. The department shall make a report of the results to the commissioner of administration no later than October fifteenth each year. The report shall include a ranking of the incentive expenditure programs by return on investment.

B. Upon receipt of the return on investment analysis from the department, the commissioner of administration shall review the incentive expenditures in conjunction with the agencies that administer the incentive expenditures and make recommendations to the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget regarding each incentive expenditure program at the January meeting following receipt of the analysis. The commissioner shall recommend one or more of the following with respect to each incentive expenditure program:

1. Make specific modifications to the incentive expenditure program to improve the return on investment.
2. Eliminate the incentive expenditure program, either immediately or by phase-out.
3. Authorize structured pay-outs of rebates or structured usage of credits for the incentive expenditure program.
4. Convert a current incentive expenditure program to a loan or grant program.
