The Honorable John Alario
President
Louisiana Senate

Ms. Yolanda Dixon
First Assistant Secretary of the Senate
I wish to withdraw my name as a nominee for election by the Louisiana Senate to the Louisiana State Board of Ethics.

I am no longer the athletic director at Centenary College. I resigned my position there last month to pursue an opportunity in college athletics/higher education more suitable to my training, background, and strengths.

Because of the uncertainties associated with several new job opportunities, I believe this would not be the best time for me or for the Louisiana Senate to consider electing me to the Louisiana State Board of Ethics. I am honored to have been nominated and hope that a better opportunity for me to seek election will present itself in the coming years.

Thank you for your consideration, and more importantly, your leadership and service.

Sincerely,
WILLIAM BROUSSARD, PH.D.

RE: Ethics Board

Dear Senate and Governmental Affairs Committee:

I have received a notice that I have been nominated for a seat on the state Ethics Board. I regret to say that my present circumstances will prevent me from being considered. I wish you good success in finding another candidate for this important post. Please send me a confirmation that you have received this notice.

Dear Senator Alario:

The Louisiana Association of Independent Colleges asked me to consider a nomination for the Louisiana Board of Ethics late last year and I was pleased to accept. Since that time, a number of complications have arisen in the form of family obligations that would prevent me from serving, should I be appointed.

I respectfully ask that you delete my name from the list of those the Senate is considering for this important appointment.

Sincerely,

RE: Nomination for Louisiana Board of Ethics

Dear Senators and Mrs. Coleman:

I am very honored that my name was submitted as a nominee for the Louisiana Board of Ethics. But after a significant amount of deliberation and prayer, I respectfully request that my name be removed from nomination for the following reason:

• I currently serve as the volunteer President of the University of Louisiana @ Monroe Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization that exists to support the advancement of the university. My term expires in January 2014.

• I have received inconsistent opinions as to whether or not my service on the Ethics Board, if I were to be selected, would require my resignation from my current ULM commitment.

• Although I would be honored to serve on the Ethics Board, I believe strongly that the right thing to do would be to complete my current leadership commitment to ULM.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,
LINDA S. HOLYFIELD
