The legislature finds that to protect the health, safety, and wellfare of the citizens of this state, the attorney general of Louisiana and his assistants shall be agents of this state with the ability, authority, and resources to pursue civil monetary penalties, liquidated damages, or other remedies to protect the integrity of the insurance industry from persons who engage in fraud, misrepresentation, abuse, or other illegal practices, as

Furthermore, in order to obtain payments to which these insurance providers or persons are not entitled, §1931.1. Definitions As used in this Part the following terms shall have the following meanings unless a different meaning is clearly required by context:

(1) "Agent" means a person who is employed by or has a contractual relationship with another person or who acts on behalf of that person.

(2) "Attorney general" means the attorney general for the state of Louisiana.

(3) "Department" means the Department of Insurance.

(4) "Insurer" means any person or other entity authorized to transact and transacting insurance business in this state.

(5) "Knowing" or "knowingly" means that the person has actual knowledge of the falsity of the information or that the

(6) "Order" means a final order imposed pursuant to a civil or criminal adjudication.

(7) "Person" means any natural or juridical entity or agent

(8) "P.O.S.T.-certified" means peace officer standards and training certified as established by the Louisiana Peace Officer Standards and Training Council.

(9) "Property" means any and all property, movable and immovable, corporeal and incorporeal.

A. No action brought pursuant to this Part shall be instituted later than ten years after the date upon which the alleged violation occurred. For violations involving a scheme or course of conduct, no action pursuant to this Part shall be instituted more than ten years after the latest component of the scheme or course of conduct occurred.

B. To the extent that the conduct giving rise to the cause of action involves the provision of services, supplies, merchandise, or benefits of a medical assistance program administered by the Department of Health and Hospitals, including any medical assistance programs administered by the state pursuant to 42
U.S.C. 1396 et seq., the provisions of this Part shall not apply.

C. An action by a prevailing defendant to recover costs, expenses, fees, and attorney fees pursuant to R.S. 22:1931.3 may be brought no later than sixty days after the rendering of a final nonappealable judgment. In the instance of a state criminal action, the action for recovery of the civil monetary penalty shall be brought within one year of the date of the criminal conviction, final plea, or pre-trial diversion agreement.

(1) In the case of a civil judgment rendered in federal court, the action for recovery of the civil monetary penalty pursuant to R.S. 22:1931.6 may be brought after the judgment becomes enforceable and no later than one year after written notification to the attorney general of the enforceable judgment.

(2) In the case of a criminal conviction, final plea, or pre-trial diversion agreement in federal court, the action for recovery pursuant to this Part may be brought after the conviction or plea is final and no later than one year after written notification to the attorney general of the rendering of the conviction or final plea.

(3) Any action for recovery brought pursuant to the provisions of this Part shall be filed in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court for the Parish of East Baton Rouge.

§1931.3. Civil actions authorized
A. No person shall knowingly commit any fraudulent insurance act as defined in R.S. 22:1923 or violate any provision of R.S. 22:1924.
B. The attorney general may institute a civil action in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge to seek recovery from any person or persons who violate any provision of R.S. 22:1924. Each violation may be treated as a separate violation or may be combined into one violation at the option of the attorney general.

C. An action by a prevailing defendant to recover costs, expenses, fees, and attorney fees shall be ancillary to and shall be brought in the same court as the civil action brought pursuant to the provisions of Subsection B of this Section.

D. A prevailing defendant may seek recovery only for costs, expenses, fees, and attorney fees if the court finds, following a contradictory hearing, that either of the following applies:

(1) The action was instituted by the attorney general pursuant to Subsection A of this Section after it should have been determined by the attorney general to be frivolous, vexatious, or brought primarily for the purpose of harassment.

(2) The attorney general proceeded with an action properly instituted pursuant to Subsection A of this Section after it should have been determined by the attorney general that proceeding would be frivolous, vexatious, or for the purpose of harassment.

E. Any action brought pursuant to the provisions of this Part shall be filed in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court for the Parish of East Baton Rouge.

§1931.4. Burden of proof; prima facie evidence; standard of review
A. The burden of proof in an action instituted pursuant to this Part shall be a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Any person who has violated a settlement agreement entered into pursuant to Subsection A of this Section after it should have been determined by the attorney general to be frivolous, vexatious, or brought primarily for the purpose of harassment, shall be deemed to exist if the defendant has pleaded guilty to, been convicted of, or entered a plea of nolo contendere to, or participated in a pre-trial diversion program for a criminal charge in any federal or state court when such charge arises out of a violation of R.S. 22:1924.

C. The submission of a certified or true copy of an order, a civil judgment in a state or federal court, or a criminal conviction, final plea, or pre-trial diversion agreement shall be prima facie evidence of the same. The submission of the bill of information or indictment and the minutes of the court shall be prima facie evidence as to the circumstances underlying a criminal conviction, final plea, or pre-trial diversion agreement.

§1931.5. Civil monetary penalty A. Proof by a preponderance of the evidence of a violation of R.S. 22:1924 shall be prima facie evidence that a civil action, instituted in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge pursuant to the provisions of this Part, the attorney general may seek a civil monetary penalty provided in R.S. 22:1931.6 from any of the following:

(1) A person determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have violated any provision of R.S. 22:1924.

(2) Any person who has violated a settlement agreement entered into pursuant to this Part.

(3) A person who has been found liable in a civil action filed in federal court pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1347 et seq., or 42 U.S.C. 1328a-7(a) or (b), et seq., or 31 U.S.C. 3772.

(4) A person who has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to or has participated in a pre-trial diversion program for, or has been convicted in federal or state courts of criminal conduct arising out of circumstances which would constitute a violation of R.S. 22:1924.

§1931.6. Recovery
A. (1) Actual damages incurred as a result of a violation of the provisions of this Part shall be recovered only once by the insurer and shall not be waived by the court.

(2) Except as provided in Paragraph (3) of this Subsection, actual damages shall equal the difference between the amount the insurer paid or would have paid and the amount that would have been due had not a violation of this Part occurred, plus interest at the maximum rate of judicial interest provided by R.S. 13:4202, from the date the damage occurred to the date of repayment. Actual damages shall include investigative expenses incurred by the insurer.

(3) If the violator is a managed care healthcare provider contracted with a health insurer, actual damages shall be determined in accordance with the violator’s provider agreement.

B. Any person who is found to have violated R.S. 22:1924 shall be subject to a civil fine in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars per violation.

C. In addition to the actual damages provided in Subsection A of this Section and any civil fine imposed pursuant to Subsection B of this Section, a civil monetary penalty shall be imposed on the violator in an amount which equals three times the benefit pursued, including actual damages as a result of the violation.

D. (1) Any person who is found to have violated this Part shall be liable for all costs, expenses, and fees related to investigations and proceedings associated with the violation, including attorney fees.

(2) All awards of costs, expenses, fees, and attorney fees are subject to review by the appellate court for abuse of discretion.

(3) The attorney general shall promptly remit awards recovered for those costs, expenses, and fees incurred by the parties involved in the investigations or proceedings to the appropriate party.

E. (1) Payment of interest on the amount of the civil fine imposed pursuant to Subsection B of this Section shall be at the maximum rate of legal interest provided by R.S. 13:4202 from the date the damage occurred to the date of repayment.

(2) Prior to the imposition of a civil monetary penalty, the court may consider whether extenuating circumstances exist as provided in R.S. 22:1931.7.

§1931.7. Waiver; extenuating circumstances
If a waiver is requested by the attorney general, the court may waive any recovery except for actual damages, required to be imposed pursuant to the provisions of this Part provided all of the following:

(1) The violator furnished all the information known to him about the specific allegation to the department or attorney general no later than thirty days after the violator first obtained the information.

(2) The violator cooperated fully with all federal or state investigations concerning the specific allegation.

(3) At the time the violator furnished the information concerning the specific allegation to the department or attorney general, no criminal, civil, or departmental investigation or proceeding had been commenced as to the alleged violation.

§1931.8. Deposit of monies collected
A. All monies collected pursuant to this Part shall be dedicated to and deposited into the Insurance Fraud Investigation Fund pursuant to R.S. 40:1428(C). Forty percent of the monies deposited into the fund pursuant to this Part shall be allocated from the fund to the attorney general’s office for purposes as provided by law.

§1931.9. Assessment reduction or recalculation Except as provided in this Part, there shall be no reduction of assessment in the Insurance Fraud Investigation Fund assessment as provided in R.S. 40:1428.

§1931.10. Civil investigative demand
A. If the attorney general has information, evidence, or reason to believe that any person or entity may be in possession, custody, or control of any documentary material or information relevant to an investigation for a possible violation of this Part, he or any of his assistants may issue to the person or entity a civil investigative demand.

B. The attorney general proceeded with an action properly instituted pursuant to Subsection A of this Section after it should have been determined by the attorney general that proceeding would be frivolous, vexatious, or for the purpose of harassment.

C. The submission of a certified or true copy of an order, a civil judgment in a state or federal court, or a criminal conviction, final plea, or pre-trial diversion agreement shall be prima facie evidence of the same. The submission of the bill of information or indictment and the minutes of the court shall be prima facie evidence as to the circumstances underlying a criminal conviction, final plea, or pre-trial diversion agreement.

D. Any person who has violated a settlement agreement entered into pursuant to Subsection A of this Section after it should have been determined by the attorney general to be frivolous, vexatious, or brought primarily for the purpose of harassment, shall be deemed to exist if the defendant has pleaded guilty to, been convicted of, or entered a plea of nolo contendere to, or participated in a pre-trial diversion program for a criminal charge in any federal or state court when such charge arises out of a violation of R.S. 22:1924.

E. Any person who has been found liable in a civil action filed in federal court pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1347 et seq., or 42 U.S.C. 1328a-7(a) or (b), et seq., or 31 U.S.C. 3772.

F. Any person who has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to or has participated in a pre-trial diversion program for, or has been convicted in federal or state courts of criminal conduct arising out of circumstances which would constitute a violation of R.S. 22:1924.

G. Any person determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have violated any provision of R.S. 22:1924.

H. Any person who has violated a settlement agreement entered into pursuant to this Part.

I. Any person who has been found liable in a civil action filed in federal court pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1347 et seq., or 42 U.S.C. 1328a-7(a) or (b), et seq., or 31 U.S.C. 3772.

J. Any person who has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to or has participated in a pre-trial diversion program for, or has been convicted in federal or state courts of criminal conduct arising out of circumstances which would constitute a violation of R.S. 22:1924.
no earlier than twenty days after service of the demand upon the person or his representative or agent.
B. A civil investigative demand issued pursuant to this Part may be served by the sheriff or a P.O.S.T.-certified investigator employed by the attorney general or by the office of state police when the demand is issued to a resident or a domestic business entity found in this state. A civil investigative demand issued to a non-resident or a foreign business entity may be served using long-arm jurisdiction as provided for in the Code of Civil Procedure.
C. Upon failure to comply with the civil investigative demand, the attorney general may apply to the district court having jurisdiction over the person to compel compliance with the civil investigative demand.
D. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, no documentary material, answers to interrogatories, or copies thereof, in the possession of the attorney general or any other agency assisting the attorney general with the matter under investigation may be used by any person or entity that may have evidence except as determined by the attorney general and subject to any conditions imposed by him for enforcement of the laws of this state. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to prohibit or limit the attorney general from sharing any documentary material, answers to interrogatories, or copies thereof with the United States government, any other state government, any federal or state agency, or any person or entity that may be assisting in the investigation or prosecution of the subject matter of the civil investigative demand.
E. The civil investigative demand may use documentary material derived from information obtained pursuant to this Section, or copies of that material, as the attorney general determines necessary for the enforcement of the laws of this state, including presentation before a court.
F. Any documentary material has been produced by any person or entity in the course of any investigation pursuant to a civil investigative demand and any case or proceeding before the court or grand jury arising out of such investigation, or any proceeding before any state agency involving such material has been completed, or if no case or proceeding in which such material may be used has been commenced within a reasonable time after analysis of all documentary material and other information assembled in the course of the investigation, the attorney general may upon written request of the person or entity who produced the material, return to such person or entity any such material that has not passed into the control of any court, grand jury, or agency through introduction into the record of such case or proceeding.
G. The term “documentary material” as used in this Section shall include but is not limited to all electronically-stored information including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or data compilations that would be subject to a request for production under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 as it exists now or is hereafter amended.
§1931.11. Investigative deposition
A. When the attorney general has information, evidence, or reason to believe that a violation of this Part has occurred, the attorney general may issue an investigative subpoena for deposition to any person who may have information or knowledge relevant to the matter under investigation, or for the purpose of revealing, identifying, or explaining documentary material or other physical evidence sought under R.S. 22:1940. Such investigative subpoena shall contain a general description of the matter under investigation and a notice informing the prospective deponent of his right to counsel at the deposition with opportunity for cross-examination. Such deposition shall be conducted at the principal place of business of the deponent, at his place of residence, at his domicile, or, if agreeable to the deponent, at some other place convenient to the attorney general and the lawful and designated attorney representative of the deponent. Such deposition shall be held at a date no earlier than seven days after the date on which demand is received, unless the attorney general or an assistant attorney general designated by the attorney general determines that exceptional circumstances are present which warrant the commencement of such testimony within a lesser period of time.
B. An investigative subpoena issued pursuant to this Part may be served by the sheriff or a P.O.S.T.-certified investigator employed by the attorney general or by the office of state police when the demand is issued to a resident or a domestic business entity of this state. An investigative subpoena issued to a non-resident or a foreign business entity may be served using long-arm jurisdiction as provided for in the Code of Civil Procedure.
C. When the investigative subpoena is issued to a business entity, the entity shall designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, who are responsible for complying with the subpoena on the entity’s behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters on which he will testify. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization.
D. Upon failure of a person or entity to comply with the investigative subpoena, the attorney general may apply to the district court having jurisdiction over the person to compel compliance with the investigative subpoena. Failure to comply with a court order is punishable by contempt.
§1931.12. Asset forfeiture
A. In accordance with the provisions of Subsection B of this Section, the court may order the forfeiture of property to satisfy recovery pursuant to this Part under either of the following circumstances:
1. The court may order a person from whom recovery is due to forfeit property which constitutes or was derived directly or indirectly from gross proceeds traceable to the violation which forms the basis for the recovery.
2. If the attorney general shows that property was transferred to a third party to avoid paying recovery, or in an attempt to protect the property from forfeiture, the court may order the third party to forfeit the transferred property.
B. Prior to the forfeiture of property, a contradictory hearing shall be held during which the attorney general shall prove by clear and convincing evidence that the property in question is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Subsection A of this Section. No such contradictory hearing shall be required if the owner of the property in question agrees to the forfeiture.
C. If property is transferred to another person within six months prior to the occurrence of theft or robbery, the violation for which recovery is due or within six months prior to or after the institution of a criminal, civil, or departmental investigation or proceeding, it shall be prima facie evidence that the transfer was intended to avoid paying recovery or was an attempt to protect the property from forfeiture.
D. The healthcare provider or other person from whom recovery is due shall have an affirmative duty to fully disclose all property and liabilities and all transfers of property which meet the criteria of Subsection C of this Section to the court and the attorney general.
§1931.13. Termination of Part
This Part shall terminate on August 1, 2014.

On motion of Senator Morrish, the committee substitute bill was adopted and becomes Senate Bill No. 765 by Senator Morrish, substitute for Senate Bill No. 251 by Senator Morrish.
